ARMIES FALL BACK

Bolshevik Smash Way Forward on Southern Flank—Beresina River Crossed—Rovno Fortress Falls—Americans in Fighting.

By the Associated Press.
WARSAW, July 8.—Owing to the critical condition of the country, volunteers for active service in the army are offering themselves from every side. They include school and university teachers, students, boy scouts, civil servants and ministerial employees whose occupations excuse them from military service. The students are enlisting in such numbers that the Warsaw universities have been closed.

Stirred by the appeal of the National Council of Defense for volunteers, hundreds of girls and women have taken initial steps to join the army. Yesterday uniformed women soldiers, with women officers, paraded the streets singing and, for the first time, Warsaw detachments of female recruits under the guidance of women officers marched to the barracks.

Many of the recruits were strong girls in short skirts and shirtwaists with braided hair hanging down their backs. The sight of female recruits aroused enthusiasm everywhere along the principal streets. Mixed with the girl recruits were women of from 25 to 30 years, who swung parasols, purses and market packages in arms, soon to carry rifles.

Used for Guard Duty.
The women's battalions will be used chiefly for guard duty in barracks and food depots and as train escorts, thus relieving men for the front lines.

The Socialist Party Central Committee today issued the following proclamation: "When the Polish troops were advancing we demanded peace; but now we ought to defend ourselves firmly. We appeal to the soldiers to fulfill their promise to the country against the offenders. The Government, however, ought to give guarantees that it desires peace—declare to the world that Poland desires a just peace and address to the Soviet Government proposals for peace negotiations."

In response to the National Council call to arms, the Universities Students' Union is urging boys to join the colors and girls to offer their services as nurses or otherwise. A thousand students who had prepared to spend their vacations in the plebeian areas as Polish propagandists, now are recruiting to fight the Bolshevik menace along the 1200-kilometer front.

Bolshevik Announced Successes in Drive Along Dniester.

By the Associated Press.
LONDON, July 8.—Russian Bolshevik forces have smashed their way forward on the southern flank of the Polish front and Soviet military authorities claim success in a series of battles near Staro-Konstantin, toward which town they are driving the Poles, according to a Bolshevik official statement received here by wireless.

Soviet forces have reached Little, 24 miles east of Priskov, and have occupied Mohilev-Podolsk in their drive along the Dniester River.

Heavy fighting is going on between the Bolshevik and forces commanded by Gen. Wrangel, on the southern front, the struggle being particularly intense in the region of Orskov, the statement says.

NEGRO CONVICT SHOT TO DEATH BY MISSOURI POSSE
AFTER ASSAULTING WOMAN

Member of Prison Road Gang Who Escaped From Camp and Attacked Mail Carrier Slain Near Centerville.

By a Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.
JEFFERSON CITY, July 8.—W. R. Painter, chairman of the Prison Board, today received a telegram from T. B. Blount, a road overseer at Ellington, Reynolds County, Mo., saying a posse at Centerville had killed Fred Canfax, a negro convict who yesterday attacked a woman rural mail carrier near Ellington, which is 10 miles from Centerville, the county seat.

Canfax was a member of a convict road gang of 20 men who had been working a mile and a half from Ellington. After the attack on the woman was reported to Jefferson City yesterday afternoon Lieutenant-Governor Crossley offered a $300 reward for the negro's capture.

CONVICTION OF LABOR
ORGANIZERS UPHOLD

Fine of $25 Each Imposed on Men for Holding Street Meeting Without Permit.

By the Associated Press.
PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 8.—Judge R. M. Kennedy, in court here today, upheld the conviction of six organizers of the American Federation of Labor for attempting to hold a street meeting in Duquesne, Pa., without a permit, last May, but reduced the fine of $100 imposed by the Magistrate in each case to $25. An appeal was announced, will be taken to the United States Supreme Court.

Under a city ordinance passed by the Council of Duquesne, a street meeting of 15 miles from Pittsburgh, it is necessary to obtain from the authorities a permit before a public meeting can be held.

On May 3, R. W. Riley, secretary of the National Committee of Iron and Steel Workers in the Pittsburgh district, and others, tried to speak at a street meeting in Duquesne.

The men claimed they had applied for a permit for the meeting and had heard nothing from Mayor George S. Crawford. As each tried to address the crowd he was approached by Thomas J. Flynn, chief of police, and asked whether he had a permit. When none was shown, the man was arrested and taken to the city jail.

Men Fined $100 Each.

The men were fined $100 with the option of 30 days in the county jail in Pittsburgh, and later were removed to this city. The case was appealed on the ground that the ordinance was "void, illegal, unfair, discriminatory, oppressive and unreasonable and violation of the constitutional rights of the people to free speech and free assembly."

Judge Kennedy, in his decision, held that under the ordinance it is necessary, before public meetings can be held, to obtain a permit and if the Mayor in his judgment feels the proposed meeting will be detrimental to the public he can refuse to grant a permit. Refusal of such a permit, the court held, is not an invasion of the rights of the people, but if the meeting might tend to provoke disorder or disturbance, the permit affords a protection and a preservation of their rights.

No Objection to Labor Cause.

"It is to be observed," said Judge Kennedy, "that the ordinance does not prohibit assemblies, public meetings, etc. On the contrary, it provides that the Mayor shall issue a permit therefor, unless detrimental to the public interest, and that the city of Duquesne, acting through and by him, is the judge. It is not the cause of organized labor to which the Mayor objects; it is the open discussion of such a subject. The avowed intention of this meeting was to publicly discuss a subject in a locality where in the past its discussion has been the cause of riots, bloodshed and death, a subject which at this time provokes great excitement, bitter feeling and inflamed passions among those who discuss it."

Is an ordinance which authorized a municipality to forbid such a meeting within its limits an invasion of the rights of the people of such municipality? Does it not rather afford protection to and a preservation of their rights?

"Believing, therefore, that the ordinance in question is of the same general class as that sustained in the case of the Commonwealth versus Curtis, supra, the defendants were legally convicted of its violation. In view of the testimony in these cases, we are, however, of the opinion that the offenses do not call for extreme penalty imposed by the ordinance, and have therefore fixed the fine at $25 in each case."

WARD OF THE NEGRO'S CAPTURE.

The road gang, in charge of Fred Still, a penitentiary guard, was idle in a tent camp because of rain. Canfax, who was serving 20 years for highway robbery in Kansas City, escaped from the camp.

The woman mail carrier said Canfax rushed out of the woods as she was passing along the road and that he exhibited a knife and forced her to accompany him into the woods. She reported the attack at a nearby farmhouse.

The other prisoners were brought back to the penitentiary here last night.

LANDIS ASSAILS WILSON
FOR CUTTING SENTENCE

Criticizes Action in Case of Illinois Man in Cattle Fraud Conviction.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, July 8.—Judge Kenesaw M. Landis, in a statement addressed from the bench to members of the bar today, criticized the action of President Wilson in commuting the sentence of James Dorsey, cattleman of Gilbert, Ill., from eight years to four.

"I wonder what frame of mind he must have been in to cut such a sentence," the judge said.

Dorsey was convicted of selling 12,000 head of cattle, which he used the mails to advertise were full-blooded Holsteins. When the animals were delivered it developed they were common stock.

It was charged by the Federal Government that the cattle were diseased.

"This millionaire cattle king was sentenced some time ago to serve eight years in the Federal prison for using the mails to sell tuberculous cattle throughout the West," Judge Landis said.

"Here are about 80 defendants before me this morning. I suppose most of them have been taking too much drink. Now, here's this man Dorsey, who sold about 12,000 head of cattle a year ago and made about $120,000 a year. These indictments against Dorsey charged him with the misuse of the mails for this purpose. He advertised through the mails that the cattle were full-blooded Holsteins and that purchasers would be given certificates showing that all the Federal and State laws had been complied with."

"Dorsey hired an old horse doctor who would sign blank certificates and other clerks would fill them out. An avalanche of complaints was received about the cattle from Mexico to Alaska."

"The police now want to find out what made him sink to the depths where, as on the night he was killed, he wore torn, dirty clothing. They suggest it may have been unrequited love."

The dead man was between 20 and 22 years old. He was beardless and had dark auburn hair. He was six feet one inch in height and weighed about 150 pounds. His eyes were slate gray.

WANDERER OWNED
BOTH PISTOLS USED IN DOUBLE KILLING

Former Army Lieutenant Changes Story About Manner in Which Wife and Tramp Were Shot.

IDENTITY OF DEAD
MAN STILL SOUGHT

Photographs, Finger Prints and Description to Be Compared With Draft Records in Washington.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, July 8.—Lieut. Carl Wanderer, whose wife and an unidentified man were killed at the entrance of the Wanderer's apartment house several weeks ago, admitted to the police today that both revolvers used in the double killing belonged to him.

He had previously maintained that the stranger killed his wife in an attempted holdup, and that he then drew his own revolver and shot the man.

In his admission today of ownership of both weapons, he said, police say, that the stranger took one weapon away from him and killed Mrs. Wanderer, when Wanderer then drew the other weapon and shot his wife's assailant.

Changes Story of Shooting.

Wanderer, weakening under 11 hours of relentless police questioning today, had changed a dozen times his story of the tragedy in the vestibule of his home on June 21, when his wife and a rugged stranger were shot to death. His original story that the stranger, a burglar, had killed his wife and had himself been killed by the police, was changed in several important details.

At each step in the story Sgt. John W. Norton, head of the homicide squad, sent out his men to bring in witnesses to face Wanderer and to check up on the new angles of the story.

While this was going on the police were busy seeking to identify the body of the rugged stranger in the county morgue.

Suspect Another Tragedy.

Back of this stranger, whose ragged clothes and unkempt countenance at the time of the tragedy strengthened the belief that he was a circus follower and a crook, the police believe they will find another tragedy.

Three months ago, they now assert, the man, really little more than a boy, was not a tramp. Detective Sergeant Dennis Carroll of the homicide squad has determined that until three months ago the dead youth had been clean, even fastidious about the person, his nails had been manicured and his teeth had been carefully cared for. He had been healthy and strong and the contour of his head indicated a youth above the normal mentality.

Efforts at Identification.

The police now want to find out what made him sink to the depths where, as on the night he was killed, he wore torn, dirty clothing. They suggest it may have been unrequited love.

The dead man was between 20 and 22 years old. He was beardless and had dark auburn hair. He was six feet one inch in height and weighed about 150 pounds. His eyes were slate gray.

This Is What President Wilson said about "Uncle Sam of Freedom Ridge"

The President's high praise of this story by Margaret Prescott Montague, that had just been published in the June number of the Atlantic Monthly, was uttered in his famous interview given to Louis Seibold and published in the Post-Dispatch and the New York World June 18, last. HARDING SHAKES HANDS WITH
"THE BOYS" ON HIS PAPER

Meets 75-Year-Old Printer Who Has Been Employed by Marion Star 30 Years.

By the Associated Press.
MARION, O., July 8.—While away from his office today Senator Harding stopped at the Marion Star, of which he is publisher, to shake hands with "the boys." Among those to greet him was Lew Miller, 75 years old, a printer who has been employed in the Star's composing room since the Senator purchased the paper 24 years ago.

"Some day when I have some leisure," Senator Harding later confided to the newspaper correspondents, "I am going down and 'make up' the paper. I enjoy doing that. I love to go down to the make-up room in the hurry-up hour. I love the excitement of it."

The Senator also inquired whether any of the newspapermen had ever "made up" a newspaper and challenged any to compete with him.

A telegram expressing appreciation of the statement made public yesterday by Senator Johnson, Republican, of California, announcing his support of the Republican ticket, was today sent by Senator Harding to the California Senator.

MARSHALL SAYS HE GOT WHAT HE WANTED AT FRISCO—NOTHING

By the Associated Press.
LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 8.—Vice President Marshall, who arrived here yesterday after attending the Democratic National Convention, said he "guessed everyone was pleased with the result at San Francisco."

"My part in it pleases me," he said. "I told everyone I did not want anything politically. I have had eight years in Washington and I am satisfied. I know what the White House is. I believe the man who wants to get into the White House and does, will want to get out as soon as possible."

"I want to get back into private life so I can walk down the street and look the citizens in the eye without wondering whether they believe that Pendleton had 'made up' me with alcohol."

Mr. Marshall said he and Mrs. Marshall would "loaf" in Los Angeles a day or two and then go to Coronado Beach.

COX 'ESPECIALLY GRATIFIED'
OVER REED'S CONGRATULATIONS

By the Associated Press.
DAYTON, O., July 8.—Gov. James M. Cox, the Democratic presidential candidate, today expressed especial gratification over the receipt of a telegram from Senator James A. Reed of Missouri, congratulating him and his associates on the selection of the Ohio executive as the party's candidate.

The Governor also has received a telegram from Richmond P. Hobson, anti-saloon leader in Alabama, asking him for a strong statement opposing any effort of Congress to modify the Volstead act to permit a greater alcoholic content in liquors. The Governor stated that he would answer the Hobson telegram in "due time."

Pendleton has denied from the first that he was in New York on the night before the murder. The District Attorney declares that he has witnesses who contradict Pendleton on this point.

Irrespective of what the District Attorney says, Pendleton adheres to his original story. In an interview the turfman declares emphatically he spent the night before the murder on Long Island, and substantiates his declaration by naming his whereabouts on that night. He also names persons with whom he was in company.

Garage Worker's Story.

The District Attorney's new statement says that Pendleton's story he was at Cedarhurst, and his blue Hudson car was in his garage there, is contradicted by an attendant at the Atlas Garage, 2 East Fifty-second street, named John E. Doyle, who stated, according to the District Attorney, that at about 2 o'clock Friday morning, June 11, Pendleton's car was brought to the garage by Oliver W. Bird, that he drove with Bird to a "place at Madison avenue, near Fifty-fifth street, where Bird remained a half hour; that Doyle then drove Bird home, and on his way to the garage was hailed by George B. Post Jr., of Post & Plagg, who recognized the car as Pendleton's, got in it and was driven to Sixty-third street and Fifth avenue, after which he took the car back to the garage where it remained until sometime after 7 o'clock, when it was taken away while Doyle was at work upstairs. INQUIRY REVEALS
ELWELL AS KING OF 'BOOTLEGGERS'

Turfman Said to Have Done Business of Hundreds of Thousands in One of Biggest "Whisky Rings."

IMPORTANT ARRESTS EXPECTED SOON

Investigator Says Pendleton Has Contradicted Self in Stories of Activities on Night of Murder.

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, July 8.—Federal authorities, investigating the many sided life of Joseph B. Elwell, have come into possession of facts tending to show that, in the three months prior to his murder, the bridge whist expert and turfman was the moving spirit in one of the biggest "whisky rings" in the country.

The authorities say Elwell was no piker when it came to "bootlegging." He was not numbered among the hundreds of "case goods" men. On the contrary, information shows he conducted a business in the illicit sale of liquor that mounted into the hundreds of thousands of dollars.

From what has been learned by investigators for the Government, Elwell capitalized to the fullest extent his friendship with men and women of means, whose companionship he shared in the fashionable winter and summer colonies on the Atlantic coast. When his air in the Beach stables slumped in form and the whist expert began to find it difficult to get into a "paying" game he naturally drifted into "bootlegging" and several years after his advent into that form of endeavor he and his coterie with which he surrounded himself for the purpose, were shipping car lots of stuff into New York, where his merchandise sold for large sums.

Information with respect to Elwell's "bootlegging" deals is considered of such importance by officials that James Shulkin, supervising prohibition agent for this district, left New York last night for Washington, where he will consult with his superiors as to the procedure to be pursued by officials of this district.

Important Arrests Expected.

The belief last evening was that within two days there will be several important arrests made by prohibition agents and the authorities make no secret of their belief that much of the mystery of the murder of Elwell will be dispelled.

While the Federal agents were rounding up their end of the investigation, the District Attorney, today expressed special gratification over the receipt of a telegram from Senator James A. Reed of Missouri, congratulating him and his associates on the selection of the Ohio executive as the party's candidate.

The Governor also has received a telegram from Richmond P. "WILD USE OF MONEY"
IN GEORGIA DESCRIBED IN SENATE HEARING

FRIEND OF ELWELL WHO HAS BEEN UNDER WATCH

WILLIAM A. PENDLETON.

SENATORS COMING HERE TOMORROW
FOR AN INQUIRY

Will Go Into the Palmer Fund and Question Goltra About Expenses of Delegates.

By a Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.
CHICAGO, July 8.—Inquiry into the $2000 fund with which the expenses of St. Louis delegates to the Democratic State convention at Joplin were paid will be begun in St. Louis tomorrow morning by the Senate committee investigating expenditures of presidential candidates.

Senators Kenyon, Spencer and Reed will conduct the St. Louis hearing, which will be held at the Federal Building and before which Democratic National Committeeman Edward F. Goltra and Joseph T. Davis of St. Louis, who aided Goltra in arranging for the Democratic special train to the San Francisco convention, have been summoned. Until the arrival of Goltra and Davis in St. Louis from the convention, members of the Democratic City Committee and others having information about the fund Goltra is said to have raised and distributed to the committeemen will be examined by the Senators.

Senator Reed, discussing last night the further hearing in St. Louis, said that he was taking no part in the arrangements for it. "It would hardly be good taste for me to be active in this matter, considering the relations between Goltra and myself," Senator Reed explained. Goltra, as is known, led the successful opposition to seating Reed at San Francisco.

Four Democratic City Committeemen Summoned to Appear.

Subpenas were served today on four members of the Democratic City Committee, Patrick O'Neill, James P. Miles, Arthur A. Lancaster and Barney Flaherty, to appear before the United States Senate Campaign Fund Investigating Committee when it opens its hearing in St. Louis tomorrow.

Other members of the City Committee for whom subpoenas were issued were Henry Striker, Michael Magee, John Rolfe, James Fitzsimmons and Chairman Daley.

They are expected to testify at the investigation into the fund raised here by Edward F. Goltra, Democratic National Committeeman for Missouri, to defray the expense of delegates to the State convention at Joplin, at which Goltra was re-elected national committeeman. In a statement at San Francisco last Friday Goltra said he raised about $2000 by pay delegates' convention expenses at Joplin. He denied that he paid the expenses of any delegates to the national convention. Lawrence P. Daley, chairman of the Democratic City Committee, said each member of the committee received $150 of this money.

Negro National Committeeman Testifies in Fund Inquiry and Declares $60,000 Was Spent for Wood, $20,000 Sent in for Campaign for Lowden.

"MONEY SPENT BY DEMOCRATS, TOO"

Witness Declares That Negroes Voting Republican Ticket in His State Have Been Known to Disappear—Lynched, He Says.

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, July 8.—Negroes who have voted the Republican ticket in Georgia have "disappeared" and never been heard of again, Henry Lincoln Johnson, negro Republican national committeeman, told the Senate committee investigating campaign expenditures today.

The committee was questioning Johnson about lynchings in the South.

"They don't lynch men for belonging to the Republican party, do they?" asked Senator Kenyon.

"Many a negro voting the Republican ticket has disappeared and no tidings have ever been heard of him," Johnson replied.

In Dublin, Ga., during the pre-convention campaign, there was "wild use of money," the witness asserted. "I spent only $150 there," he explained, "but the other fellows spent more than $20,000."

"The other fellows," he said, "were the representatives of Major-General Leonard Wood, while I was working for myself for national committeeman."

Asked if Wood supporters "bought delegates," Johnson said he didn't know but "they passed out plenty of jack to the boys."

Johnson declared that backers of Gen. Wood spent "around $60,000 in Georgia, while the Lowden supporters spent only $20,000."

Clark L. Grier, former postmaster at Augusta, Ga., was the "payoff man" for the Wood people, he said, adding that Grier worked under direct orders from Frank Hitchcock, former Postmaster-General in the Roosevelt Cabinet.

Democrats paid from $5 to $5000 for votes in Georgia this year, and "generally spent more money than the Republicans," Johnson told the committee.

$8000 From Illinois.

"Not a cent," Johnson said, "was given to any delegate to the Republican national convention," the witness declared. He said he received $8000 from Illinois, "but not from any other State."

When the witness charged the Democrats had spent more money than he did and had bought votes in local elections, Senator Reed (Democrat) interrupted, to ask:

"You don't care when you get $8000, do you?"

"Not a cent," the witness replied, "but I would need about $50,000 to combat some Democratic conditions there."

Senator Kenyon suddenly turned to the Palmer campaign in Georgia, asking Johnson if officials of the Department of Justice took part in the Attorney-General's campaign there.

"Hooper L. Alexander of Atlanta was the leader," Johnson said.

Johnson told the committee that 25 per cent of the negroes were prevented from voting "by brutal force and suppression." He said the situation was summed up in the following words, which he attributed to a speech by Senator Hoke Smith:

"In Georgia a negro is fortunate enough to vote, while no white man is too unfortunate to vote."

Lynchings in the South.

Asked about lynchings in the South, Johnson asserted the great trouble was that white men were allowed to attack negro girls without punishment. Such a state of affairs greatly aggravated race feelings, he said.

He cited alleged instances of white soldiers attacking negro girls during the war, and said the soldiers, though discovered, went unpunished.

Other questions concerning activities of the Department of Justice in Georgia brought no definite information.

Princeton Man Says Lowden Money He Received Was for "Debt" From Morse for Work 8 Years Ago.

By a Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

CHICAGO, July 8.—Testimony of Missouri Republicans concerning their receipt and expenditure of $25,000 sent into the State by campaign managers for Gov. Lowden, to further his candidacy for the Republican nomination for President, was concluded here yesterday before the Senate committee investigating campaign expenditures.

Pleased relief summarized the feelings of those who yesterday passed through the fire of Senator Reed's grilling. Almost without exception they felt that they were being asked questions which they felt were unfair and which they felt were not to the point. They felt that they were being asked questions which they felt were not to the point.

The inquiry up to this time, as told yesterday in yesterday's Post-Dispatch, has shown that Lowden money found its way, among others, to 15 Missouri delegates to the national convention, to two other delegates, to 14 members of the State committee and 12 county organization men.

15 Delegates Who Received Lowden Money; How They Voted

THE testimony of E. L. (Liv) Morse of Excelsior Springs, paymaster of $25,000 Lowden money in Missouri, before the Senate committee investigating pre-convention campaign expenditures, has revealed that 15 of Missouri's delegates to the Republican national convention received a total of $12,350 Lowden money prior to their going to the convention. The names of these delegates, the amounts they received and their vote on the first ballot in the convention follow:

Nat Goldstein, St. Louis, $2500; in his absence, alternate voted for Harding.
Robert E. Moore, St. Louis, $2500; in his absence, alternate voted for Harding.
Fred Eason, St. Louis County, $1000; Lowden.
W. L. Cole, Union, chairman Republican State Committee, $500; Harding.
Dr. Ed S. Brown, Edina, $1000; Lowden.
Roy T. Davis, Columbia, $500; Sproul.
W. P. Elmer, Salem, $300; Lowden.
L. F. DeHart, Cameron, $200; Lowden.
T. J. Franks, Joplin, $1000; Wood.
Robert H. Hedrick, Cole Camp, $200; Lowden.
Carr Hartshorn, Elvins, $100; Lowden.

checks were shown to the Senators, with endorsements by L. L. Emmerson, Lowden manager.

Goldstein and Moore, in stating recently that they had returned the Lowden fund, said that the return to Emmerson had been through "another man" whom they refused to name. The checks did not reach Emmerson for several days. This is the first identification of Morse as "the other man."

More Recipients of Cash. As told yesterday, the testimony of Morse and Jacob L. Babler of St. Louis, National Committee member, whose resignation is being demanded by certain Missouri Republicans for his distribution of Lowden funds, revealed that the number of Missouri delegates to the Republican national convention who received Lowden money through them was 15 and that the sum paid was $12,350. The names of nine of these delegates and the amounts they received were made known for the first time—Dr. Ed S. Brown, Edina, $1000; Roy Davis, Columbia, $500; W. P. Elmer, Salem, $300; L. F. DeHart, Cameron, $200; Robert H. Hedrick, Cole Camp, $200; Carr Hartshorn, Elvins, $100; John N. Pryor Jr. of Mansfield, $100; and Dr. E. F. Lindley, Stansbury, $100.

PRIORITY NEEDED IN RAIL SERVICE, WILLARD ASSERTS

Chairman of Executives' Committee Tells I. C. C. It Is Necessary to Relieve Freight Tieup.

URGES SHIPPERS NOT TO KEEP CARS IDLE

Railroads Will Be Able to Take Care of Business of Entire Country in Year, He Believes.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—Priority of service in favor of the more essential commodities is necessary to relieve the present transportation congestion on the railroads, Daniel Willard, chairman of the Advisory Committee of the Association of Railway Executives, declared today before the Interstate Commerce Commission.

"I do not think it will be necessary to wholly curtail the movement of any particular kind of business," said Willard. "I do think it will be necessary for a time, however, to give preference to certain particular kinds of business more important than others from the public standpoint."

Willard pointed out that the commission had the emergency authority under the transportation act to order such priority of service.

Another means of relieving the situation suggested by Willard was greater co-operation on the part of shippers in releasing cars quickly so that the railroads may get the maximum use out of the cars.

He also expressed hope that the Labor Board would end the difficulties that have confronted the railroads with respect to labor.

"If the yardmen and other employees," Willard said, "had their pay and working conditions satisfactorily adjusted, they would take hold of work as well as American railroad men know how to work when they want to. I am hopeful that the railroads will be able to make the existing equipment, by virtue of increased mileage, much more efficient and in that way gradually bring about a normal condition."

He also believed that if a way can be found so that new equipment will be available for next year's business, that by another spring the railroads will be able to take care of all of the business of the entire country.

"This, the speaker stated, is what they will be expected to do. The what they are attempting to get in shape to do."

No Change in Order Suggested. Willard and representatives of a number of shippers appeared at the opening of the commission's hearing on modification of its recent service order requiring reference to be given coal mines east of the Mississippi in the assigning of open-top cars. No change of the order was suggested by Willard, who read a long prepared statement, in which he reviewed the circumstances leading up to the present conditions on the railroads.

Reviewing Federal control, the witness told the commission many cars now operating were unfit for service, particularly cars designed for carrying grain, and that the percentage of cars owned by one road and in use by another was greater than before Federal control, so that the owning companies had not yet been able to examine them and determine which should be laid up for necessary repairs.

Better loading of cars by shippers was urged by Willard, who said statistics showed that the average carload on all the railroads of the country was only about 70 per cent of the carrying capacity of the car, and that, in addition, about 32 per cent of the total car mileage was made with empty equipment.

Strikes Chiefly at Terminals. Willard referred to the "numerous" strikes of railroad men recently and said that while the number of employees involved at any one time was very small, the strikes had occurred chiefly at terminals and other points which would cause the maximum amount of inconvenience. In this connection, the witness said that the number of cars now awaiting movement was 68,000 or 70,000 greater than it ought to be.

In summing up, Willard said the railroad managers appreciated the responsibility that rested upon them under existing circumstances.

"It is the definite purpose of the roads," he said, "by voluntary effort and co-operation, to see that in times of emergency all facilities are used in the most effective manner. In order that the public may make the greatest measure of transportation service. It should, however, be kept in mind that at the present time the railroads are called upon to transport a much greater volume of business with an impaired and insufficient plant. I do not wish to be understood as criticizing the Government because of the condition of the railroads; I prefer rather to think that their condition is one of the by-products of the war. In any event, if the war had not happened, I believe the railroads would have been able to perform the transportation service of the country as well today as they did generally before the war."

MOVE IN FAVOR OF SUFFRAGE FAILS IN LOUISIANA HOUSE

Motion to Suspend Rules to Obtain Action Today Is Defeated by a Vote of 52 to 46.

LEGISLATURE WILL ADJOURN TONIGHT

Telegram From Gov. Cox Brings No Action and State Chairman's Message Is Denounced.

By the Associated Press.

BATON ROUGE, La., July 8.—Efforts to suspend the rules of the Louisiana Legislature so as to act on the suffrage amendment before adjournment of the session tonight, failed today. The motion was voted down, 52 to 46.

Reading in the House the telegram from Gov. Cox, the Democratic nominee for President, expressing the opinion that the Louisiana Legislature owed it as a duty to the Democratic party to ratify the Federal suffrage amendment, brought no open movement to obtain action on the ratification resolution yesterday.

The Democratic nominee's telegram was transmitted to the House by Frank J. Looney, chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, to whom Gov. Cox addressed his message. Cox's telegram was accompanied by a telegram from the State Chairman, also urging ratification.

Reading of the Looney telegram "drew from Representative Dupre a statement on the House floor that he would not permit dictation by the State Chairman."

"I say this telegram (the Looney telegram), is an insult to the intelligence of every member of this Legislature," declared Representative Dupre amid the cheers of suffrage opponents.

The bill proposing to extend the suffrage to women by State amendment was defeated in the Senate yesterday, 27 to 14, or one short of the required two-thirds.

Gov. Clement Undecided as to a Special Session. RUTLAND, Vt., July 8.—Gov. Clement, returning to his home here today for the first time since his conference in Washington with Senator Harding regarding a special session of the Vermont Legislature to make possible ratification of the woman suffrage amendment, said he was still undecided as to a special session.

"That Washington matter was given altogether too much publicity," he added.

tion of benevolence" compared with the Democratic steam rollers in Georgia, Johnson said, adding that conditions there were controlled by the administration.

Were Former Postmasters. Going back to the Wood campaign, Johnson said National Committee member George Bean of Florida, Capt. Henry Blum of Savannah, Ga., and Dr. C. Cole, former postmaster at Atlanta, "were ordered to 'prepare a delegation for Mr. Hitchcock to boss'."

Johnson charged that offers of postmasterships were made to men by Wood backers to men of influence to get Wood votes. "Many of the men backing Wood were former postmasters," he said.

"Were you men offered jobs as Postmasters?" Senator Kenyon asked.

"Not directly, but they would not let the crown be offered them too many times," Johnson answered. "I might have said I would use my influence."

The committee adjourned after hearing Johnson, to meet in St. Louis tomorrow morning.

Charges Made Against Palmer at Hearing Yesterday. Charges were made before the committee yesterday by William Armstrong, Chicago attorney, that Palmer released prohibition law violators and was instrumental in quashing indictments against large corporations, to secure aid in his campaign for the Democratic nomination.

Armstrong is about 60 years old and represents nobody but himself. At national Republican headquarters he is regarded as "a man who bobs up during political campaigns and tries to break in."

Senator Kenyon announced that these charges had been led, and also stated that the committee would continue its efforts to learn the names of large contributors to the Wood campaign fund. William Loeb of New York, who described himself as "a sort of clearing house" through which the Wood funds in the East passed, told the committee he did not think it would be fair to the contributors to mention their names.

Armstrong charged yesterday that the Department of Justice had attempted to "prevent indictments being returned against the New York Central Railroad by a Federal grand jury," and said a "Democratic mem-

WANTS LEAVE TO INTERVENE IN BLUEBIRD RECEIVERSHIP

Gardner Advertising Co. Makes Claim of $75,000 for Two Years' Services.

The Gardner Advertising Co. today filed a petition in Circuit Judge Calhoun's court to be permitted to intervene as a plaintiff in the receivership suit against the BlueBird Manufacturing Co., alleging that it is a creditor of the manufacturing company to the extent of $75,000 on account of advertising and other services rendered in the past two years.

The petition will be acted upon Saturday when Judge Calhoun takes up various matters pertaining to the manufacturing company's affairs, including the proposition of the Davis Sewing Machine Co. of Dayton, O., to purchase the BlueBird concern.

One of the questions to be considered in connection with the Davis company's proposition is whether the Davis company proposition to continue the business of the BlueBird company in St. Louis. It has been suggested that, in view of the fact that the Davis company enlarged its plant at Dayton in the war period and a large section of the plant now is idle, the concern may want to assemble washing machines at Dayton.

The receivers for the BlueBird company have expressed the hope that they will get officers who will ensure the continuation of the company's business in St. Louis.

WILSON TO CALL LEAGUE MEETING FOR NOVEMBER. ber of Congress" agreed with "a certain person to obtain $327,178.13 from the Government on post-war claims if given 25 per cent." Details of his charges are expected to be brought out later.

Witnesses of Yesterday. Chief among the witnesses yesterday were Loeb, formerly private secretary of Theodore Roosevelt; J. L. Zabler, Republican National Committee member from Missouri, and E. L. Morse, of Excelsior Springs, Mo., described by witnesses as the distributor of Gov. Lowden's campaign funds in Missouri and "boss" of the Third Missouri Congressional District.

Loeb described how a group of New York men underwrote $1,000,000 for the Wood campaign. Senator Reed took up the cross questioning of nearly a dozen witnesses concerning political conditions in Missouri and in particular in the Third Congressional District, which, he said, was "noted as a hotbed of political intrigues."

Loeb presented several check books which were transcribed in the records and which he said would show what funds he disbursed. About $400,000 passed through his hands, he testified. He also told of sending cashiers' checks for $500,000, without accompanying letters, a practice which he asserted was not unusual in politics. He sent those checks wherever he was told to by Frank Hitchcock, former Postmaster-General and a Wood manager.

Goitra Denies Spending Money for Delegates to Palmer. SAN FRANCISCO, July 8.—Following the announcement late yesterday in Chicago that the Senate Campaign Fund Investigating Committee had subpoenaed Edward P. Goitra, Missouri national committee member, and Joseph T. Davis, St. Louis lawyer, who managed Goitra's campaign for re-election by the Joplin convention, Goitra and Davis, who still are in this city, said they gladly would appear before the Senate committee and tell all they know.

Beyond denying that he had expended money in Missouri to obtain delegates for Palmer, or that he paid the expenses of any delegates coming to the convention, Goitra refused to talk. Both said they had received no official information that they had been subpoenaed.

Both admitted they were ardent Palmer supporters and had done all they could to help his candidacy.

Goitra led the fight before the National Committee and later before the Credentials Committee to bar Senator Reed from a seat in the convention. Just before he left here Senator Reed, when told of reports that Palmer money had been used in Missouri, said he had no intention of using his position on the Senate Investigating Committee to obtain revenge on his political enemies, but would consider any evidence laid before the committee.

Goitra said that he was "willing to appear before any committee of respectable citizens clothed with authority to make an inquiry."

Both he and Davis denied that so far as they knew any Palmer money had been used to pay expenses of the Missouri delegates to the national convention. Davis said he knew of no Palmer money being used in Missouri for any purpose.

Goitra plans to leave here as soon as reservations can be made for New York. He had hoped to be in New York Monday. Davis has made no plans to leave. He and Mrs. Davis expected to visit Los Angeles and Yellowstone Park before returning to St. Louis.

Davis said he knew that Goitra paid money to St. Louis committee members for delegates' expenses to the Joplin convention, but pointed out that there was no Palmer delegate from St. Louis.

MAN SHOT WHEN IN DOOR OF SALOON IDENTIFIES CUSTOMER

Prisoner, Who Went Away in His Auto, Unable to Remember What Happened.

Andrew Miklich was shot in the right thigh and left leg at 4 p. m. yesterday while standing in the front door of his saloon at 2201 Franklin avenue. At the city hospital he identified Roy Carper, a ransacker, of 1923 North Twenty-second street, who ran from the saloon and drove away in his automobile after the shooting.

Carper, who was arrested at his home, after policemen had followed his automobile, was unable to make a coherent statement. He said he had been drinking and could not remember what happened.

Policemen took Carper to the saloon where James Ryan, the bartender, said his back was turned when the shot was fired. He said Carper was in the saloon at the time.

Ryan was arrested to be held as a witness. Miklich denied that Carper obtained intoxicating drinks in his saloon.

Wanderer says he does not know the man, but Sgt. Norton keeps asking him the question over and over again.

"He's told a dozen different stories," said Sgt. Norton early this morning. "My men are now rounding up some more witnesses and checking up on his new statements. It looks as though he will have the whole thing cleared up within 24 hours."

Lieut. Wanderer was arrested Tuesday night with his brother-in-law and cousin pending further investigation of the case.

Wanderer told police that the man he killed had slain Mrs. Wanderer after attacking them without provocation. Wanderer said he had then killed the man with his army pistol. A similar weapon was found beside the body of the dead man, who has never been identified.

Police Trace Pistol Found. Police traced the number of the pistol believed to belong to the dead man and found that Wanderer's brother-in-law was the original owner. The brother-in-law, John Hoffman, said he sold it to Fred Wanderer, a cousin of the Lieutenant. Fred Wanderer, when arrested, told police, they say, that Carl borrowed the pistol from him several days before the shooting.

Carl Wanderer was taken into custody and said, according to the police, that after killing the man he left the pistol with him, the stranger's pistol appeared to be a better weapon.

GERMANS GIVEN TO JAN. 1 TO REDUCE ARMY TO 100,000

Allies' Offer of Extended Time Holds for Cutting of Armed Force to 150,000 by Oct. 1.

TROOPS MAY STAY IN NEUTRAL ZONE

Lloyd George Makes Proposal After Delegates at Spa Ask for 15 Months to Carry Out Condition.

By the Associated Press.
SPA, Belgium, July 8.—Premier Lloyd George on behalf of the allies offered the Germans this afternoon to extend to Oct. 1 the time for the reduction of the German army to 150,000 men and until Jan. 1, 1921, to the 100,000 men provided by the Versailles treaty, and also to allow the Germans to retain certain troops in the neutral zone temporarily.

The Germans were given until noon tomorrow to reply whether they would formally accept the allied terms.

This plan was communicated after the allied representatives had considered over night a request from the Germans for 15 months in which to reduce the number of their effective troops.

The allied representatives met this morning and for two hours and a half discussed the German plan presented yesterday. It resulted in an agreement being reached upon the attitude that should be taken on the disarmament question.

Official Communication.
The following official communication dealing with the conference was issued last evening:

"Dr. Simons set forth the extreme difficulties the German Government had to face in giving satisfaction to the allies and the dangers which threatened it. He nevertheless recognized the necessity for furnishing precise data concerning materials in existence in Germany and the dates on which, in the German Government's opinion, the arms and effective might be reduced to the level prescribed in the treaty and insisted upon by the allies. He said he would leave it to Gen. von Seeckt to speak on this point.

Gen. von Seeckt thereupon handed in a detailed note on the position regarding guns, rifles and machine guns and proposed that a proportional reduction in materials and effective should be carried out within a period of 15 months. Mr. Lloyd George replied on behalf of the allies and described the anxiety over the situation which existed in Germany, according to the statements the German Ministers had given to the conference.

Quantities of Arms Cited.
"Several millions of rifles, he proceeded, still remained in possession not only of the troops, but also the population, as well as thousands of guns, trench mortars and machine guns. The number of soldiers under arms under various forms and pretenses exceeded 1,000,000. It was beyond comprehension that a situation so dangerous and abnormal should be tolerated by any Government.

"The allies could not allow that situation prolonged another 15 months and it must be settled by a vigorous effort in the shortest practicable time, he declared.

"The military, naval and air experts will meet this afternoon to verify by statement and counter-statement the figures submitted by General von Seeckt and, after having taken the opinions of their military advisers, the allied governments will tomorrow morning make known their final decision."

NEW YORK SILK IMPORTING FIRM IN HANDS OF TRUSTEES

Klots Throwing Co., With $11,000,000 Assets and $8,000,000 Liabilities, Lacks Ready Cash.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, July 8.—The Klots Throwing Co., a silk importing and manufacturing concern with 15 plants in New England and the Middle Atlantic states, and offices in Japan and China, today was placed in the hands of trustees to continue the business. The house was said to have assets of $11,000,000, exclusive of plants, against liabilities of only $8,000,000, but lack of sufficient assets in liquid form was given as the cause of appointing trustees for it.

The collapse of silk values in Japan, cancellation of orders and subsequent difficulty in getting the liquid capital after most of its profits had been put into plants, brought about the present acute situation in the company's financial affairs, it was stated. The three trustees appointed are Charles Cheney, William Shoenberger and A. P. Williams, all of New York.

LEADERS CONFER ON BABLER SITUATION CLUB MEMBERS TESTIFY IN METHUDY CASE

Hays and Committeemen Meet Babler, Reynolds and Procter in Chicago.

By a Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

CHICAGO, July 8.—Chairman Will H. Hays and five members of the Republican National Committee this afternoon are conferring with National Committeeman Jacob L. Babler over the demand for his removal from the Republican organization in an effort to find a way to restore harmony in Missouri.

Former Circuit Judge Matt G. Reynolds of St. Louis, chairman of the recent "house-cleaning" meeting, and David M. Procter of Kansas City, chairman of the anti-Babler committee appointed by that meeting, are in the conference.

Senator Spencer and Harry M. Daugherty, Senator Harding's pre-convention manager, were invited to attend. Reynolds and Procter arrived today, after having been summoned by telephone from their homes last night by Secretary Clarence E. Miller of the National Committee.

The decision to hold the conference followed an informal discussion yesterday between Babler and Hays and national committeemen. Miller said before the meeting that it was to be informal, as the committee was not in session.

National committeemen who were to participate in the discussion are A. T. Hart of Kentucky, David Mulvane of Kansas, Joseph B. Keating of Indiana, Charles D. Hiles of New York and John T. Adams of Iowa.

Missouri politicians here are divided as to significance of the gathering. A majority of the national committeemen here are friends of Babler, hence Babler's friends believe the move today is intended to pour water on the order of the Missouri "house cleaners" by showing them that Babler has a stone wall support behind him. Others believe that the national committeemen are worried by the fear of losing Missouri through the organization fight.

Babler has said that he will answer the demand by the "house cleaners" for his resignation upon his return to St. Louis. He said Tuesday he intended to "fight it out all down the line." Whether he has the backing of the national committee in this decision the outcome of the conference here today is expected to indicate.

HEAD OF "CHURCH OF SCIENCE OF THE SOUL" IS FINED $100

Woman Arrested When She Gives Policeman Information About Lawsuit That Doesn't Exist.

Mrs. Mary Vlen of 1013 North Garrison avenue, who says she is head of a church of "Science of the Soul," was fined $100 in police court this morning after Mrs. Nona Hayes, a policewoman, had testified that Mrs. Vlen yesterday charged her $1 for information her that the spirit of her father and mother were present at a seance and that a lawsuit in which she was interested was about to result favorably.

Mrs. Hayes replied that her father and mother were still living and that she was not involved in litigation and then arrested Mrs. Vlen. The latter said she had a right to accept money as head of a "church," but admitted under cross-examination that she constituted the entire clergy and laity of the sect. She also said that she had a "spiritual guide" that informed her of forthcoming events.

"Did your spiritual guide inform you that I was going to fine you $100?" asked Judge Mix.

Mrs. Vlen admitted it had not and paid her fine.

Say Mrs. Methudy Always Appeared "Happy" When Dancing With Another Man.

By a Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

The divorce suit of Eugene R. Methudy, president of the Methudy Tire and Rubber Co., 3549 Lindell avenue, against Mrs. Edna Methudy, was resumed today in Circuit Judge Calhoun's court. More testimony was given regarding Mrs. Methudy's associations at the Midland Valley Country Club with Ozzie Dixon, who is named in Methudy's petition.

Dr. James M. Smith and F. M. Deuchler, an insurance agent, both members of the club, testified that they saw Mrs. Methudy and Dixon playing golf, dining and dancing together on numerous occasions at the club, and that Mrs. Methudy always appeared to be happy when with Dixon.

Comparing her attitude toward her husband with that which she displayed toward Dixon, the witnesses said that Mrs. Methudy ignored her husband, but was very affectionate in her manner toward Dixon.

Deuchler testified that he once remarked to Methudy that if the latter knew of his wife's conduct toward Dixon and did not resent it he was a fool. He said that Methudy made no reply.

Under cross-examination, Deuchler admitted that he felt hostile toward Mrs. Methudy, but said that it was on account of her association with Dixon. He also admitted that he and Methudy participated in dice games at the club, but denied that Methudy ever lost as much as $450 in a single game. He said that $2 or $3 were the highest stakes ever played for at the club.

SENATOR HARDING WRITING OUT HIS SPEECH IN LONGHAND

"It's a Habit of 30 Years' Standing: I Write as I Think," Nominee Says.

By the Associated Press.
MADISON, O., July 8.—After several weeks spent in preliminary preparation, Senator Harding yesterday began the actual writing of his speech to be delivered on July 22 accepting the Republican presidential nomination. He expects to complete it in about 10 days, and meanwhile plans to see few visitors.

In order to get an early start, the Senator arrived at his office in the Administration Building several hours earlier than usual yesterday, but found it locked. Seating himself on the front porch, he calmly waited until George Christian, his secretary, arrived and unlocked the door.

Following a custom acquired in active newspaper work, Senator Harding is writing his speech with a pencil on a scratch pad from which it later will be copied on a typewriter.

"I am writing it as I used to write for the newspaper," said Senator Harding. "It's a habit of 30 years' standing. I write as I think."

According to his office force, the Senator never dictates a speech, and after it has been written in longhand, seldom makes changes in his "copy."

The sugar is consigned to American importers.

GUARDSMEN TO DEPART FOR CAMP SATURDAY EVENING

First Regiment and Third From Kansas City to Be at Nevada From July 11 to 25.

The First Regiment, National Guard of Missouri, will leave St. Louis for the annual camp at Nevada, Mo., at 6:25 p. m. Saturday.

The regiment has a membership of 200 men, comprising four companies. All have been supplied with modern rifles, and the full equipment of soldiers in the regular army.

The encampment, which will be held from July 11 to 25, is required of all members of the National Guard and during this time they are drilled the same and live under the same conditions as regulars, with the same pay.

During the time the St. Louis contingent is in camp, the Third Regiment from Kansas City will also be there. The two regiments will drill together, taking up all phases of the drill manual.

MAN, SON AND BARTENDER HELD FOR SELLING WHISKY

Proprietor of Saloon Carried Stock in Pocket Flask, Dry Agent Says.

William Niehaus and his son, Walter Niehaus, and their bartender, Harry Jones, were arrested at 10 o'clock last night at a saloon known as "Jazz Land," at Grand and Easton avenues, after a prohibition enforcement agent had bought a drink of whisky for 50 cents from the bartender. The bartender, who had been identified by the police as members of the gang, said they were Niehaus Cummings, 22 years old, 1110 South Ninth street; John Joyce, 20, of 1005 Rutger street; Harry Murphy, 20, of 916 Hickory street; and Layman Burleson, 20, of 922 Hickory street.

The police had been looking for the gang for five years, and have arrested members following gang shootings and numerous highway robberies and murders. The leader of the gang, John Lyons, was shot and killed three weeks ago in front of a saloon near Tenth and Hickory streets. The prisoners, all of whom have been identified by the police as members of the gang, said they were Niehaus Cummings, 22 years old, 1110 South Ninth street; John Joyce, 20, of 1005 Rutger street; Harry Murphy, 20, of 916 Hickory street; and Layman Burleson, 20, of 922 Hickory street.

When Niehaus was searched the flask and another glass were found in his pockets.

In the pockets of the proprietors and the bartender made it necessary to close the place, though many customers were at the bar and a cabaret room, which was crowded with men and women.

MAN WHO VISITED MERAMEC WITH GIRL SUED FOR DIVORCE

Wife of Burt F. King Told Police He Beat Her at Downtown Office.

Burt Frank King, 29 years old, of 1947 Minerva avenue, was sued for divorce today by Mrs. Martha Livina King, who last Thursday attacked a young woman with whom she found her husband in swimming in the Meramec River at Fenton, St. Louis County.

The following day police were called into the Syndicate Trust Building and were told that "something awful" was happening in King's office. They went there and found King and his wife. She said he had beaten her and she had struck him with her hand bag.

"ANGEL OF BRONX" GETS 5 YEARS

Former Member of New York Rent Profitting Committee.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, July 8.—Mrs. Alice J. Cavanaugh, formerly of the Mayor's Committee on Rent Profitting, and known as the rent "angel of the Bronx," today was sentenced to five to 10 years in Auburn State prison for women for defrauding tenants of $2197 entrusted to her care, pending litigation.

She was convicted of grand larceny in the first degree July 6 after a jury had deliberated less than 30 minutes.

COX COMPLIMENTS HARDING IN TALK TO GOLFERS' CROWD

Democratic Nominee Hopes He and Senator Always Will Be Friends Regardless of Election.

TO VISIT HAUNTS OF BOYHOOD TODAY

Dayton Citizens to Oppose Any Effort to Have Notification Ceremonies Take Place at Columbus.

By the Associated Press.

DAYTON, O., July 8.—Gov. Cox, the Democratic candidate for President, after working for a few hours in his newspaper office this morning, expects to pilot a number of visiting newspaper representatives about the home and haunts of his early boyhood at Jacksonburg, near Middletown, O. The trip will be made by automobile.

It now is expected that when Franklin D. Roosevelt, Gov. Cox's running mate, arrives from San Francisco, ensuing conference will result in more than the mere exchange of felicitations. "Homer S. Cummings, chairman of the Democratic national committee; E. H. Moore of Youngtown, the Governor's pre-convention campaign manager, and a number of other party leaders are expected to participate in the conferences. It is understood to be probable that phase of the campaign may be discussed, especially plans for the official notification.

Dayton Citizens are apprehensive that efforts may be made to have the notification ceremonies take place in Columbus and they are prepared to go the limit, if necessary, to nullify such an arrangement in case it should be pressed by any one. From present indications, the notification ceremonies probably will take place at Trail's End, the Governor's suburban home, where several thousand people gathered two weeks before his nomination to celebrate with him the occasion of the departure of the Ohio delegation for San Francisco.

The Governor last night made his second public address since his nomination at Dayton Country Club, at a dinner for the Ohio Golf Association. Gov. Cox is an enthusiastic golfer, and his address was chiefly an intimate talk with the members on the merits of this outdoor sport. He also spoke in cordial terms of his Republican opponent, Senator Harding, who also is a devotee of golf. He declared that, regardless of the results of the election, he and Senator Harding will remain the same splendid friends as in the past.

Example of Interest in Golf.
The Governor's interest in golf was declared by Lee Warren James, president of the Dayton Chamber of Commerce, to be best exemplified by an incident that occurred on Saturday before the nomination was made at San Francisco. James said he and the Governor were just leaving the lockers for the course, for an afternoon round, when an attendant called out that San Francisco wanted Gov. Cox on the telephone.

"Tell them I'll talk tonight," was the Governor's reply, according to James.

COAT AND SUICIDE NOTE MOVING PICTURE EXPLORATION

Chief of Police O'Brien today announced that he regretted that the Police Department had unwittingly assisted in a moving picture exploitation, engineered by Reeves Espy, publicity agent for the Famous Players-Lasker Corporation, 3214 Locust street, and a son of James C. Espy, secretary of the Board of Police Commissioners.

Last Sunday night a policeman found a coat on the levee at Market street. In one of the pockets was a poem dealing with suicide and bearing the name of Edward Freudiger and a New York address. The police wired to the address given and last night received a reply that the parents of Freudiger would offer a reward of $500 for the recovery of their son's body.

Today a telephone message was received at police headquarters that Freudiger, employed by the picture-producing company, was at the company's office. Inspector Walsh went there and interviewed him. He said he had been away on a vacation and knew nothing of the hoax until he read of the supposed suicide in a morning newspaper. Reeves Espy assumed responsibility for the incident.

WOMEN TO AID IN DEDICATION

A meeting of the Relatives' Auxiliary Societies of various regiments was held Tuesday at Vandervoort's Auditorium under the auspices of the Women's Division of the American Legion Memorial Ceremonies Committee to formulate plans for the participation of the organizations in the dedication of the American Legion Cemetery, July 25.

Committees to arrange for the program, transportation to the grounds, and other details were appointed by Mrs. Frank de Garmo, chairman of the women's division. It is planned to have the mothers of service men killed in the war present at the dedication.

CHARGES IN DEPORTATION CASE NOT PROVED, PETITION SAYS

Plea Made for Permission to File for Writ of Habeas Corpus in Case of Allen.

Request for permission to file a petition for a writ of habeas corpus in the case of Mylos Vojnovic, the first man ever ordered deported from St. Louis on charges which include advocating the overthrow of the Government by force, was made today by Willis H. Clark, attorney for Vojnovic. Judge Farris will pass upon the application later.

Vojnovic, who came here immediately upon reaching this country in 1915, was arrested Nov. 12, 1919, while at work as a butcher on charges of being an Anarchist, Communist and an advocate of the destruction of all forms of government. Literature found at his rooms was used as evidence against him.

Clark states in his petition that allegations that the man had favored destruction of Government were not proven by the Government, and that charges that were made. He adds that James T. Nash, examining inspector, who recommended the deportation of Vojnovic to the Secretary of Labor on March 22 last, did not conduct the hearing or prefer charges according to law, and that a decision of Federal Judge Anderson in Boston, handed down May 23 last, stated that it had been shown that the Communist party favored the destruction of Government by force.

Vojnovic is now on bond. Immigration Commissioner Dunn stated recently that he expected to deport him soon, but if the writ of habeas corpus is granted it will remove him from the jurisdiction of the immigration authorities.

DEPARTMENT STORE ACQUITTED

Found Not Guilty in Profiteering Case in Spokane.

By the Associated Press.
SPOKANE, Wash., July 8.—The Culbertson-Grote-Rankin Co., a department store, was found not guilty by a jury in the United States District Court last night on a charge of violating the Lever act against profiteering.

Government attorneys introduced cost price showing profits of 160 percent. The court ruled the store has the right to consider present market value as well as original costs in fixing sales prices.

ROCKEFELLER 81 YEARS OLD

By the Associated Press.
TARRYTOWN, N. Y., July 8.—John D. Rockefeller celebrated his eighty-first birthday anniversary quietly at his Pocantico Hills estate today.

There was no prearranged program for the day, but many friends of the financier and philanthropist called in person or sent messages congratulating him on the passing of his eighty-first milestone.

ACID AND HAMMER USED IN PLAYFUL FIGHT

One Man Almost Blinded, the Other Bruised on Head and Leg—Both Arrested.

Albert E. Miller, 22 years old, of 4241A Maffitt avenue, a core assembler, is threatened with the loss of his sight as the result of muriatic acid having been thrown upon him by Peter Polozzi, 26, of 822 Wash street, a solderer.

Both men are employed in the plant of the Traffic Motor Corporation, 2290 North Second street. They were at the drinking fountain at 5 p. m. yesterday, and when Miller playfully splashed water on Polozzi the latter became angry, and, picking up a bucket containing some muriatic acid used in soldering, hurled the contents at Miller.

Miller retaliated by hitting Polozzi on the head with a hammer and throwing a piece of steel at him, which struck him on the leg. Polozzi then picked up another bucket of acid and dashed the contents into Miller's face.

Both men were taken to the city hospital. Miller was suffering from burns on the face, eyes, shoulders and arms. Doctors said that had it not been for the fact that he wore glasses Miller probably would have been blinded instantly. As it was, they said, he was in danger of losing his sight. Polozzi had two scalp wounds and a cut on the leg.

The men were ordered held prisoners pending a police investigation.

MAN SUED FOR DIVORCE FOR KILLING HIS WIFE'S FATHER

Arkansas Woman, 30, Alleges Husband, 74, Shot Her Parent in Her Presence.

By the Associated Press.
PINE BLUFF, Ark., July 8.—The fact that he killed her father in her presence and for her protest, was made the basis for a suit for divorce filed here today by Mrs. Ellen Adams, 30 years old, against her husband, Mack Adams, 74.

Adams killed William Bruce, his wife's father, at the latter's home June 14. He was exonerated later by the grand jury on a plea of self-defense. Mrs. Adams asks in her suit for division of land owned by Adams in this county.

U. S. CONSIDERING RECOGNITION FOR HUERTA REGIME

Officials Impressed With Mexican President's Sincerity of Intent to Bring Order in Country.

EFFORTS BEING MADE TO 'MORALIZE' ARMY

Protection of Property Promised, but Foreigners Distrust Carranza Cabinet, Still Maintained.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, July 8.—The Mexican situation is receiving more careful study by the American Government than has any subject since the Paris peace conference, it was stated yesterday at the State Department. This is with a view to according recognition to De la Huerta's provisional government, provided satisfactory assurances are given that it can and will maintain order and will live up to its obligations respecting the protection of the lives and property of foreigners.

Iglesias Calderon, the special envoy sent by De la Huerta to ask recognition, will ask for another conference with Acting Secretary Davis when he has discussed the situation with the members of his staff, who have just arrived here from Mexico City.

American officials, it is stated authoritatively, are impressed with the evident sincerity of the expressions of Provisional President De la Huerta and of the efforts to bring about order in Mexico, but they have taken note that the active workers in the various departments of the Mexican Government have not been changed and that the newly appointed Cabinet officers leave the work of their offices chiefly to the same men who conducted the affairs under Carranza.

Foreigners Meeting Difficulties.
Reports from Mexico City state that foreigners who went to the Mexican capital to compose the differences between their companies—agricultural, mining and manufacturing—are forced to deal with the same men they formerly dealt with, and in some cases the men who conducted the confiscation of their properties under Carranza, and that they are meeting with the same difficulties as before.

Gen. Obregon's desire to reduce the size of the army, as reported in official and unofficial advices, are believed by officials to be sincere, but it is noted the army has been increased by 30,000 men as a result of the revolution. Official reports received here have told of efforts that are being made to "moralize" the army by stopping the abuses to life and property.

Gen. Calles has issued a strong "order of the plaza" on this subject. The Treasury Department has estimated that the cost of the army is $900,000 pesos a day, and Salvador Alvarado, acting Secretary of the Treasury, officially announced that there were 8000 or 10,000 people living on the nation by the padding of pay rolls.

One serious military abuse that the Government has not been able to correct is the withholding of railway cars and locomotives in spite of specific orders for their return to owners. More than 3000 cars are still in possession of the military and the railway operators say it is impossible to maintain freight or passenger schedules unless the cars are restored. Gen. Luis M. Hernandez was sent on a tour of inspection with orders to compel the military chiefs to return the cars.

School Teachers Not Paid.
The school teachers in Mexico City have not been paid since June 10, and recently a petition was sent to the Senate asking restoration of the Department of Public Instruction, which was destroyed by Carranza.

Jose Vasconcelos, who has been restored as rector of the University after having been driven into exile, issued a proclamation on resuming his duties of which the opening sentence was: "It was with a feeling of grief and sorrow that I came to this heap of ruins of what was once a department (of education) which had begun to direct public opinion along the paths of modern culture." Difficulties of reorganization and administration apparently are not the least serious of those facing the new Government. Reports to the State Department today told of several new revolutionary disturbances in various sections. These seem to be distinct from the movement led by Francisco Villa, and while not considered serious in themselves, the department officials in their efforts to analyze the whole Mexican situation are giving them careful study.

Reports from the border today that Villa had signed an armistice had not been confirmed in advices received by the department.

Officials frankly state that the new regime in Mexico has a greater task to perform before the country is restored to anything like normal conditions. They fully appreciate the difficulties that confront the new administration and say they are anxious to give what aid they can consistent with the protection of the rights of Americans in Mexico.

Men, These Are Unusually Good Athletic Union Suits for

$1.35 and $1.95

KERRY-KUT
All Year Underwear

At $1.35—

These Union Suits are made of white striped crepe; excellent fitting, substantially made, athletic Union Suits. The same on the garment is assurance of the quality.

Sale Men's Furnishing Shop—First Floor.

At $1.95—

Union Suits made of Arcadia madras, canton silk, herringbone madras, satin plaid madras, Vassar cloth, brodie satin, striped soisette, zero mesh and plisse crepe in white, flesh, pink, blue and tan.

BY taking the entire surplus stock of one of the largest manufacturers in the country we saved a goodly sum in the purchase which you may now save in your turn. It was the manufacturer's clearance and comes right in line with our July Clearance Sale, offering values that are seldom available in Athletic Union Suits right in the height of the season.

The Union Suits are well made, correctly and liberally cut so as to feel comfortable. Every Suit is of the closed crotch style and some have side openings. The elastic panel across the back adds to their wearability and comfort. Men who know the satisfaction of wearing good Union Suits will buy these quickly, for they will instantly recognize the values. It is fortunate for you that we secured enough to last for another day's selling.

The July Clearance Sale of Men's Summer Clothing Begins Tomorrow

In the Sale Are Genuine Palm Beaches, as Well as Various Other Smart, Light-Weight Materials; in Two Price Groups:

$9.50 and $11.50

THERE are about eighty stout suits in sizes from 36 to 48; a smaller quantity of suits for tall, slender men, and a large selection in medium build styles, size from 33 to 48.

The Palm Beach Suits are nearly all in the natural color, but in the other materials are many darker shades and various mixed patterns.

Men should take advantage of this opportunity to supply the rest of the Summer's requirements, for Summer is really just begun; and if one has one or two, or three good Summer Suits at the end of the season they will come in very handy indeed next year.

Reductions of an unusual nature have been taken on these clothes, so that the savings are big enough to induce quick action; the first to come tomorrow will be the first to profit to the utmost in this event.

REMOVAL OF BRITISH GENERAL IS UPHELD

Commander in Punjab Gave Order to Fire Into Crowds
When Hundreds Were Killed.

By the Associated Press.
LONDON, July 8.—An army council, after considering a report of the Hunter Investigating Committee and evidence submitted by Brigadier-General R. E. R. Dyer, concerning the latter's action in ordering troops to fire into a crowd of Indians at Amritsar, in the Punjab, upheld the Commander in Chief in India for removing Dyer as commander in the Punjab, and from holding any further army position in India, according to an announcement by Winston Spencer Churchill, Secretary of War, yesterday. The council upheld the Commander in Chief in declining to grant Dyer further promotion, and in his reduction of the pay of Dyer one-half.

"Dyer cannot be acquitted on an error of judgment," observed Churchill.

Several hundred persons were killed when the troops fired on the Indians at Amritsar last April, and hundreds were wounded.

The shooting occurred during a religious ceremony, when thousands of persons from all over the Punjab were surrounding the Dais. It was charged that soldiers stood on the high ground and fired on the helpless people from a distance of a hundred yards, and that the order for them to do so was issued by Gen. Dyer.

LEADERS OPPOSE PASSIVE FIGHT

Obloons Tell Hays Harding Must Give Exhibition of Speed.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
CHICAGO, July 8.—The "porch campaign" in Ohio, today, is under serious consideration by Chairman Hays and his fellow directors of Republican destinies. Since the nomination of Gov. Cox it has dawned upon the Ohio leaders that Senator Harding must hustle in his own State and give the Middle West an exhibition of speed. They told Hays they were against a passive campaign.

They were willing to let the committee take the responsibility, but at the same time they wanted it to know what they think and how they view the situation.

THOMAS W. GARLAND

The most powerful stimulus to men's ambitions

An inquiry into the problem of making ADVERTISING pull.

HERE is a question for advertisers, editors, educators, employers and others:

What is the most powerful stimulus to men's ambitions? What is the spur that rouses them most sharply, the whip that stirs their energies?

We on FARM & FIRESIDE think we have the answer. Our experience in editing a magazine for more than 700,000 farmers has convinced us of its soundness.

The potency of example

Walter Dill Scott contributes this thought on the question:

"We have come to see that imitation (example) is the greatest factor in the education of the young and a continuous process with all of us. The part of wisdom, then, is to utilize this power from which we cannot escape, by setting up a perfect copy for imitations."

Every man, the saying goes, has two selves—the man he is, and the man he wants to be.

It is the man we want to be that we imitate—the man we want to be whom we set up for our "perfect copy"—the man we want to be that fans the flame of our ambition, that spurs us on to achievement.

The politician looks to his Lincoln and his Roosevelt, the poet to his Shakespeare and his Shelley, the artist to his Rembrandt and his Corey, the business man to his Wanamaker and his Field.

Or maybe, as Scott puts it, merely to a neighbor next door, who "rides in an automobile, wears a Panama hat, or plays golf"

A magazine about other people

"Teaching is by example rather than precept," we are quoting Scott again. This is exactly the thought upon which FARM & FIRESIDE is built.

The example of other men—men who have succeeded and how they have succeeded, told, usually by the men themselves.

Men chosen because they typify, to the farmer, the "man he wants to be."

Such is the stuff that fires men's ambitions, that spurs them on to progress and development. Such is the stimulus that makes advertising pull—in FARM & FIRESIDE.

Missouri Women Are Told Cox Voted "Dry" in Ohio

Delegates Quiz Nominee's Boosters After Convention Ends and Are Informed of His Record in Ohio.

By MRS. W. W. MARTIN, Delegate From the Fourteenth Missouri District.

PORTOLA, Cal., July 8.—After the adjournment of the convention, the Democratic women delegates held an after-meeting in the Palace Hotel. It was called to discuss organization but turned into a quiz on the presidential nominee. When Mrs. George Bass saw that the women were determined to confer on Gov. Cox, she sent for a veteran in Ohio Democratic politics, Mr. Newman, to come and enlighten the women. He remarked afterward that it was worse than the third degree. He was a most astute and adroit witness but met his match in his cross-examiners.

The women asked him to prove the Governor worthy of the support of the women voters. He pronounced an encomium on his candidate that got nowhere. Then a woman from Montana, Mrs. Maggie Smith Hathaway, a member of her State Legislature, took him over and put him on the grill as to the wet and dry record.

According to Newman, Gov. Cox

considers prohibition a moral, not a political, issue. He has taken no part whatever in the wet and dry campaigns except that he voted for prohibition. He made an excellent record on law enforcement of all measures relating to the question.

Mrs. H. M. Pike, Ohio's only woman delegate, then explained the progress of laws in which women are interested during Cox's administration, among which in Ohio are bills relating to hours and conditions of labor, increased school appropriations, workmen's compensation, woman suffrage and the protection of childhood. The meeting closed with everybody greatly encouraged and ready to accord the Governor a hearty support.

The special correspondent of this paper had a conference with Judge Moore, Gov. Cox's manager, at his request. The Judge wished to find out the sentiment of the Missouri women on the nomination. He was told that the Governor is practically an unknown quantity and that the women will have to be shown. He explained that Gov. Cox takes the same position as the Platform Committee: That the dry question is settled. The country is dry by constitutional enactment and he favors strict enforcement of that, as of all other laws. Judge Moore promised to see that the Missouri Women's Committee has all necessary information to get Cox across to the favor of the women of the State. All accounts agree that Gov. Cox is independent to a fault and takes no dictation from anyone. Delegate Arendes says he can even carry St. Louis.

COX FAVORS CORDIAL RELATIONS WITH CANADA

By the Associated Press.
SANDUSKY, O., July 8.—A letter from Gov. James M. Cox, Democratic candidate for President, to Sir James Aikens, Governor of the Province of Manitoba, Canada, principal speaker at yesterday's session of the Ohio State Bar Association at Cedarpoint, was read to the convention. The letter said:

"I have long preached the doctrine of a better understanding between the English-speaking governmentalities of the United States and Canada. In the affairs of civilization and more intimately of humane welfare our division is only government. In Ohio you will find a cordial feeling for you and your countrymen, and an understanding of how you have suffered during the stress of war. Let us hope that as our soldiers fought, side by side, so shall the two great Powers of this hemisphere, support in union and harmony, the ideals which will guarantee a better and a happier world."

COAL MEN OPPOSE PRESENTATION OF EXHIBIT OF PROFITS

Anthracite Operators Object
Even to Public Argument on Figures W. Jett Lauck
Plans to Show.

MINERS THREATEN TO APPEAL TO WILSON

Want Operators to Accept Figures Presented by Lauck; Declare Open Covenant Should Be Reached Openly.

By the Associated Press.
SCRANTON, Pa., July 8.—Representatives of the miners appearing before the Anthracite Coal Commission here threatened today to withdraw and appeal to President Wilson unless the representatives of the mine operators consent to the acceptance of figures presented by W. Jett Lauck, statistician for the mine workers, dealing with the costs of coal production, its selling price and the profits of coal companies.

The miners declare that an open covenant should be reached at, in open conventions and declare against secret sessions of the commission. Strong opposition not only to the submission of exhibits, seven in number dealing with the alleged monopolistic control and profiteering in the anthracite industry, during the last five years, but also to public argument when the advisability of the presentation of the figures and evidence would be thoroughly discussed, was presented before the commission yesterday by coal operators.

The persistent effort of the mine owners to withhold all figures from the public which might show the revenue and income of the various companies, resulted in an executive session.

"The commission has ruled at this time that the public cross examination continue and there probably will be an early adjournment tomorrow when a final decision on the public argument of the exhibits in controversy will be made," Chairman Thompson said.

Throughout yesterday afternoon representatives of the mine workers urged that all sessions be open to the public, especially the argument on their chief exhibits, while the operators strenuously objected to the submission of the figures.

Exhibits in Controversy.

The Lauck exhibits in controversy are:

1. Relation of wages to cost of production, profits and prices.
2. Profits of anthracite coal mining companies.
3. Wholesale and retail prices of anthracite coal, 1913-1920.
4. Freight rates and cost of transportation of anthracite coal.
5. Operating and financial performances of anthracite railroads.
6. Combination in the anthracite industry.
7. Cost of producing anthracite coal at the mine in 1919.

Shortly after the session opened Warriner requested that the meeting of the body today be executive. International Vice President Murray, speaking for the mine workers, agreed to the proposal. Later, following a conference with other leaders of the miners, Murray withdrew his consent.

Warriner said: "We are not trying our case before the public. The public is not interested in these extraneous matters. This is a matter for the commission, not a matter for spreading in the newspapers."

A great part of both sessions yesterday was taken up in cross-examination by Warriner of Lauck as to the accuracy of his figures contained in exhibit 2, pertaining to irregularity of employment in the anthracite industry, his prediction that there would be a decrease of 20 per cent in working days during the next two years, and exhibit 5, covering average full-time weekly earnings in the anthracite coal mines of Pennsylvania.

NEGRO LYNCHED IN CHURCHYARD

By the Associated Press.
DURHAM, N. C., July 8.—Taken from the county jail at Roxboro by more than 200 masked men after he had been arrested on a charge of attacking a 13-year-old white girl, Ed Roach, 27, a negro, was lynched early yesterday in a churchyard. Roach was hanged to a tree limb with a chain, instead of a rope. As his body swung it was riddled with bullets.

Sheriff Thompson pleaded with the mob to let the law take its course. The leader is said to have given the Sheriff three minutes to leave the vicinity of the jail. He left. Roach was rushed by automobile three miles from the jail to be lynched. A long procession of machines filled with masked men followed. A coroner's jury has been summoned to investigate. Roxboro was quiet last night.

IMPROVEMENT IN MIDDLE WEST IN CROP CONDITIONS

"No Danger That Country Will Starve," Says Head of Farm Bureau Federation, Reviewing Situation.

REPORTS FROM FIVE IMPORTANT STATES

Acresage Smaller in Parts of Territory, but Great Gains
Have Been Made in Last Few Weeks.

By the Associated Press

CHICAGO, July 8.—Marked improvement in the principal food crops of the Middle West has been reported in the last few weeks, in contrast to unfavorable prospects earlier in the season which gave rise to some alarm. "There is no danger that the country will starve this year," is the comment of J. R.
Howard, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, in reviewing the situation.

President Howard reports that the corn prospect is now very fair and that wheat is really better. Corn production promises to be a little under normal, but it is well cultivated and clean and should turn out well with good weather in July and August.

While the wheat crop will not be normal, the crop condition is very fair. As against a lighter acreage there is a heavy carry over. Howard estimated that 20 per cent of last year's wheat remains on Kansas farms today. In Kansas and Oklahoma a better wheat crop than last year is expected.

Oats are very short and show no improvement, Mr. Howard added.

Crops are reported late.
North Dakota sends word of better crop conditions than for several years.

Reports from various States in the producing sections follow:

Concordia, Kan.—Shortage of manpower in the harvest fields has prompted the organization of a peace-time corps. The peace-time corps is Women's Corps.

"It is the only way to meet the crisis," said one of the women leaders in the movement. "There is much work that we can do and the work has to be done. Male applicants for work are scarce and want too much money."

The harvest "Waacs" are working in the harvest fields by the score, driving "headers" and binders, shocking wheat, raking hay and frequently doing more strenuous labor.

KANSAS CITY, Mo.—Wheat harvesting is getting under way in earnest in the wheat district south of Wichita, Kan., according to A. L.
Barkman, in charge of the United States Free Employment Service in Kansas City. He says a much heavier yield will be harvested than was anticipated a few weeks ago and adds that rains have improved wheat conditions greatly in northwestern Kansas. Other crops are in good condition, according to his information.

TOPEKA, Kan.—Almost ideal conditions the last few weeks have prevailed for crop planting and growth in Kansas. The condition of practically all crops is declared
"excellent" by both Federal and State crop authorities. In the last two months official estimates on the wheat crop now being harvested, have increased from 92,000,000 bushels to 111,000,000.

FARGO, N. D.—Crop conditions in North Dakota are better than they have been for several years.
Small grains in the Red River Valley are reported in excellent condition, sufficient rains falling in that section to reduce materially the grasshopper menace. In the western part of the State small grains are in good condition, but the rainfall there has been light and farmers are apprehensive on account of the grasshoppers. The 1920 small grain acreage in the State is 20 per cent less than last year's.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Ok.—Oklahoma's growing crops generally are in better condition than a year ago, according to Federal and State agricultural authorities here. Recent rains have greatly benefited corn and cotton, according to H. H.
Schultz, Federal crop reporter, and have interfered little with the harvesting of wheat, oats and barley, now in progress. Digging of potatoes is on in full. The second cutting of alfalfa is ready.

DALLAS, Tex.—Crop conditions in Texas improved materially during the three-weeks period ending June 20, according to the Texas Industrial Congress. All crops are reported from 20 to 40 days late, however, but with generally favorable weather since June 1 farmers are said to have made "wonderful progress in planting, replanting and cultivating."

A summary of the report shows:
From 20 to 25 per cent of the cotton crop remains to be planted;
wheat and oats harvesting is in progress and potato digging is under way. A protracted drought in portions of West Texas has been broken by general rains and cattle range conditions are excellent.
The total cultivated acreage of the State this year is 8 per cent less than in 1919. One hundred and fourteen counties report a probably cotton acreage of 10,129,000 acres, or 98 per cent of last year's acreage; condition compared with 1919, 75.5 per cent.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo.—Favorable crop results are expected in Missouri, according to the State Board of Agriculture, despite the inclement weather in May, which reduced wheat conditions to 69 per cent of normal.

It is estimated the State will yield 29,162,140 bushels of winter wheat, 161,000 of spring wheat, and 39,775,750 of oats, although 550,000 acres are idle.

CHAMPION "STOWAWAY" SOON TO GET DE LUXE OCEAN TRIP

New York Woman Plans to Take 14-Year-Old Boy Refugee to Europe With Her.

NEW YORK, July 8.—After having crossed the ocean five times hidden behind bales and boxes, Mike O'Hoolley, 14 years old, "champion stowaway," may within a few months travel luxuriously aboard a transatlantic liner bound for Europe for a temporary visit to promote his education.

This became known today when Mrs. Marion C. Curry, who adopted the Irish-Belgian war orphan, mascot of American troops, denied an erroneous report emanating yesterday from Ellis Island, that she had inquired of immigration authorities there how she could be relieved of the custody of her ward.

Mrs. Curry said that she had asked Ellis Island officials what she would have to do if she wished to take the boy to Europe on a trip which she is contemplating. She said that she did not want the boy deported, but that evidently the authorities had misunderstood her.

"The boy has been good as gold," said Mrs. Curry, "and I do not want him deported. He has just completed school and is now going to a boy scout camp for the summer."

HIGHER CARFARE IN EAST ST. LOUIS TO BE REQUESTED

Advance May Be to 10 Cents, Says Head of Company, After Award of 40 to 52 Per Cent Pay Increase.

COMPANY SAYS IT IS NOT MAKING MONEY

New Scale Will Be 70 Cents an Hour for Car Operators—Increase Also for Shopmen.

The East St. Louis & Suburban Electric Railway Co. will ask for an increased fare on the East St. Louis line, including Eads Bridge, and the Belleville line to provide the revenue needed to pay the increase of 40 to 52 per cent awarded by a board of arbitration last night to employees on those lines.

W. H. Sawyer, president of the company, said today that he could not say what increases would be required until a computation is made and that even then it would be difficult to arrive at the increases needed because it would be impossible to know how great a decrease there would be in the number of passengers carried under increased fares. He said that the increase in East St. Louis might have to be to 10 cents or more, with increases on the bridge and on the Belleville line in proportion.

The present East St. Louis fare is 8 cents. Application for an increase of 8 cents is pending before the Illinois Public Utilities Commission. The bridge and city fare is 11 cents. Zone fares are in effect on the Belleville line. The fare from St. Louis to Belleville is 32 cents.

General Manager Parsons said he had not recovered from the shock of the arbitration board's announcement. The company expected some increase, he said, but nothing like what was granted. "We are not making money at the old wage rate," he said, "and we now have before the Public Utilities Commission a request for permission to increase fares in East St. Louis from 6 to 8 cents to meet the 12 per cent increase in wages allowed by the War Labor Board a year ago."

Under the decision of the board, which has been in session for several weeks, motormen and conductors will get 70 cents per hour, which amounts to $6.65 for their working day of nine and one-half hours. They will get pay and one-half for overtime.

Their demands had been for $7.45 cents per hour, but William R. O'Leary, president of the local division of the carmen's union, said that the men were well pleased with the decision of the board. Two years ago the men were granted a sliding scale of from 46 to 51 cents per hour by the War Labor Board.

Shopmen were also granted an increase. They are to receive 63 cents an hour instead of the present scale of 48 cents and extra men will be guaranteed $50 to $60 per month. The decision was handed down by David M. Walsh, representing the employees, and L. V. Walcott, neutral members of the board. C. E. Smith of St. Louis, who represented the company, refused to sign the award. The present grant is retroactive to May 1 and affects 310 men. About half of the employees met last night and voted to accept the increase. The balance will meet tomorrow morning.

No Action on Eight-Hour Day. The demands of the men included an eight-hour day, instead of the nine and a half hours that they now work. The arbitration board took no action on that.

The wage demands of the men on the Alton city line and on the single track interurban lines remain to be arbitrated. The Alton men are getting from 46 to 51 cents and demand 52 1/2 cents. The interurban men are getting 48 to 53 cents and demand 55 cents. Walsh is the arbitrator for the Alton men. The interurban men have selected A. W. Kerr of Springfield. At the meeting of the East St. Louis employees last night Walsh was presented with a hand-made cedar chest, the workmanship of one of the employees.

Smith made the following explanation of his refusal to sign the board's finding: "It was favorable to a reasonable increase, but could not sign the wage award because the great increase was not justified by any evidence laid before the board nor by any argument or facts advanced by the other arbitrators, and I was unwilling to burden the public with the increased fare which must inevitably follow the payment of such a large increase in wages—if, in fact, it be possible to increase fares sufficiently to meet the increased expenses."

LINEMAN SHOCKED AND BURNED

Alex Moore, 26 years old, of 1809 North Twentieth street, a Kinloch Telephone lineman, was severely shocked and burned about the arms and shoulders when he came in contact with Live wires while working on a telephone pole in front of 2304 Farrar street at 11 a. m. today. He was 30 feet from the ground and fell when he touched the wires, becoming entangled in wires a few feet below where he was working. He was rescued by fellow workmen. His condition is serious.

NEW $125,000 HOME FOR NEGRO ORPHANS PLANNED

The Board of Directors of the St. Louis Colored Orphans' Home have announced plans for erecting a new building on Goode avenue, extending from Cottage to Kennerly avenues.

and facing Tandy Park, to cost approximately $125,000. Tandy Park is a strip of land, faced on one side by the Summer High School. The city acquired it a year and a half ago as a public playground and recreation center for negroes. The old frame structure, which the home has occupied at 4300 Natural Bridge Road since 1906, was condemned in 1919 by the Building Department, and at the same time the Council of Associated Charities requested a revision in the methods of the home's administration. In order to preserve the institution, the Board of Directors persuaded Mrs. Annie E. Malone to accept the presidency of the board. The new management contemplates several radical changes in methods of administration. The home will no longer be a permanent residence for children, but will be regarded as a distributing station from which orphans will be placed in good homes. Uniform clothing will be dispensed with.

A 13-acre farm on West Main street in Belleville belonging to the widow of Walter S. Loudon was sold at a partition sale by Master of Chancery John Hamlin to Sue B. Hall for $18,000. The property has a frontage of 875 feet on Main street, west of the entrance to Signal Hill.

FEATS, TESTS FOR FIREMEN

Forty-nine Negroes Begin Taking Examinations for First Company Containing Them.

Forty-nine negroes who want to be city firemen began taking physical examinations before the Efficiency Board today. The city is planning the organization of the first negro fire company, and its eight members will be drawn from the applicants now being examined.

Among other feats each applicant must chin himself eight times on a horizontal bar and lift a 106-pound dumbbell above his head twice. About twenty of the applicants are high school graduates. Mental examination will be held next Saturday.

Says Whole World Dislikes Japan.

By the Associated Press.

TOKIO, July 8.—Umehiro Suzuki, member of Parliament for Tokyo, in an attack on the budget of the House of Representatives yesterday, declared Japan was disliked by the whole world and asked if the Government had any definite plan to steer it through the present critical period.

BENDIX SUGGESTS
INTER-CITY CIRCUIT
OF SUMMER OPERA

Would Invite Detroit, Cleveland, Cincinnati and Minneapolis to Join St. Louis in New Venture.

"RAISE STANDARD OF PERFORMANCES"

Interchangeable Principals Proposed, Each City Having Own Chorus—Would Aid Symphony Orchestra.

Max Bendix, musical director of the municipal opera season, has prepared a plan for submission to the Productions Committee which he believes would not only obviate the principal handicaps under which the summer opera now labors, but would also solve one of the most pressing problems of the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra.

His idea is to urge Detroit, Cleveland, Cincinnati and Minneapolis to join with St. Louis in establishing a summer opera circuit of 10 weeks, and as the first step he asks that Mayor Kiel invite the Mayors of these cities to witness several performances at the Forest Park theater, as guests of the Municipal Theater Association.

"No one could resist the charm of this wonderful natural setting," says Bendix, "and I am convinced that each of the visiting Mayors would have a desire to emulate the example set by St. Louis, and would try to establish a similar organization in his community."

Each city, according to Bendix, should have its own chorus, orchestra, musical and stage directors, and chorus master. But the casts of principals, say five for each of the 10 operas chosen, would be selected for their suitability to the roles, and would be interchanged among the five cities.

Promote Higher Standards.

"This," he declares, "would solve the problem of setting high standards. It would make possible the selection of a cast best suited to interpret the roles in a chosen opera. They would appear one week in each city, thereby playing one role for five weeks, besides having five weeks of rehearsal time to prepare another opera to be played in the succeeding five weeks. In this way the artists would be called upon to learn only two roles in 10 weeks, instead of 10, which would save wear and tear on their voices and nerves, and enable them to give their best for the entire season."

"The chorus master and stage director could be shifted one week in advance to each city, to prepare the chorus in the work to be presented the following week. The amateuring, synchronizing and wedding of the whole into a homogeneous mass could be done on Mondays and Tuesdays, with the openings on Tuesday nights."

"This plan would not only result in better performances, but would mean the saving of thousands of dollars in production and rehearsal expenses, besides offering to the public the attraction of many different artists instead of a few and the same ones during the 10 weeks' season."

Would Aid Orchestras.

The cities suggested for co-operation in the proposed inter-city operas were named because they have symphony orchestras and are all, with perhaps the exception of Minneapolis, confronted with the difficulty of holding their forces together, owing to the fact that their seasons are limited to 20 or 25 weeks. The resulting instability of personnel is one of the chief trials of symphony conductors.

"The picture houses," says Bendix, "are living the best musicians away from the symphony orchestras by paying more liberally for their services and giving them employment 52 weeks in the year. The establishment of a municipal opera in each of these cities, after the St. Louis plan, would make it possible to utilize the services of the symphony musicians for 10 weeks during the summer, and might prove an inducement to the men to accept engagements in the orchestras instead of the picture houses. It is natural to suppose that, other things being equal, the average high-class orchestral musician would prefer a symphonic and operatic engagement to a picture house engagement."

VILLA MODIFIES PEACE TERMS

Armistice With Mexican Bandit Leader Reported Probable.

By the Associated Press.

MEXICO CITY, July 8.—Elias L. Torres of El Paso, who conferred on behalf of the provisional government with Francisco Villa, the rebel leader, with regard to an armistice, has announced that Villa had modified his peace terms and that conciliation is likely, says the Excelsior.

Messengers Reporting Theft Held.

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, July 8.—Two young bank messengers who reported yesterday they had been held up and robbed of $20,000, were taken into custody last night by police for examination. They were charged with telling conflicting stories. The youths are Ira Salzman, 18 years old, and Emmanuel Dry, 17. Salzman said he could not give a description of the robbers as they had blackened their faces.

H COMPANY MEMBERS MEET

30 Men in Hilsenfirst Raid Gather on Excursion Steamer.

Thirty members of H Company, 138th (St. Louis) Infantry, which made the raid at Hilsenfirst, in the Vosges Mountains, on July 6, 1918, met again on the steamer St. Paul Tuesday evening, the second anniversary of the raid, and fought the battle all over again in memory.

Of the company officers who took part in the raid, First Lieutenant William H. Leahy and William Bryan were present, and Col. E. J. McMahon, commanding officer of the regiment, and his brother, Capt. Will McMahon, were there.

As an annual celebration in memory of the raid the men planned to hold a picnic in one of the parks every Fourth of July.

872 AMATEUR WIRELESS PLANTS IN CHICAGO DISTRICT

Radio Fans Pay From $250 to $3500 for Equipment, Federal Inspector Says.

CHICAGO, July 8.—Since the Government ban on amateur radio outfits was raised last October, 872 amateur stations have been opened in the Chicago district, comprising Illinois and 11 neighboring states, according to a report sent to Washington by Charles C. Kloster, United States radio inspector for the district. Of this number 262 are in Chicago.

The real radio fan would do anything to get money enough to buy radio equipment," Kloster said. "The cheapest equipment costs around $250, and some of the radio enthusiasts paid as high as $3500 for their apparatus."

"There used to be a demand for commercial operators, but since the amateur operators have increased in such large numbers the number of operators seeking positions exceeds the vacancies."

U. S. REMOVES BAN ON TRADE WITH SOVIET RUSSIA

Materials Except Those Adaptable to War Purposes May Be Exchanged—Mail Still Barred.

ACTION FOLLOWS MOVE BY ENGLAND

No Government Recognition of Bolsheviks or Protection to Travelers in Russia Extended.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—Restrictions on trade with Soviet Russia were removed yesterday by the State Department except in so far as they pertain to the shipment of materials susceptible of immediate use for war purposes.

An individual export license must be obtained for the shipment of such materials and it was announced that such licenses would be granted only in exceptional cases.

Individual export licenses also will be required for the export to Russia of locomotives, railroad material and rolling stock, and motor cars and component parts.

While taken independently of other nations, this action followed extensive exchanges between the United States and Great Britain and France. It is believed to have been hastened by the recent negotiations between Gregory Krasin, representing the Bolshevik Government, and Premier Lloyd George looking to the resumption of trade between Great Britain and Russia.

In announcing its action, the State Department took particular pains to state that political recognition, present or future, of any Russian authority exercising or claiming to exercise governmental functions was neither granted nor intended. It also emphasized that individuals or corporations trading with Russia would do so on their own responsibility and at their own risk, as this Government could offer no protection to Americans going to Russia or trading with Russia.

The statement also was made by the department that indications were that Russia had only a small quantity of raw materials for export; that its purchasing power was very limited and that consequently there would not be any considerable trade with that country.

Text of Announcement.

The announcement by the department follows:

"The restrictions which have heretofore stood in the way of trade and communication with Soviet Russia were today removed by action of the Department of State. Such of these restrictions, however, as pertain to the shipment of materials susceptible of immediate use for war purposes will, for the present at least, be maintained.

"Political recognition, present or future, of any Russian authority exercising or claiming to exercise governmental functions, is neither granted nor implied by this action. It should be emphasized, moreover, that individuals or corporations availing themselves of the present opportunity to trade with Russia will do so on their own responsibility and at their own risk. The assistance which the United States can normally extend to its citizens who engage in trade or travel in some foreign country whose Government is recognized by the United States, cannot be looked for in the present case, since there is no official or representative Russian authority with which this Government can maintain the relations usually existing between nations. The action which the United States is now taking in no wise constitutes a recognition of the validity of industrial or commercial concessions granted by any existing Russian authority. American citizens availing themselves of the present relaxation of restrictions are warned against the risks incident to the acceptance of commodities or other values, or the title which may later be brought into the question.

"The situation which at present prevails, relative to travel from or to Russia, will be unaffected by the removal of trade restrictions. Passports for Russia cannot be issued, nor will any change be made in the visa regulations now in force.

No Mail to Be Accepted.
"Since it is not desirable at this time to undertake negotiations with the Soviet postal authorities, the Postoffice Department will be unable to accept mail from or to Soviet Russia. There has never been any parcel post connection between the United States and Russia and this mode of forwarding goods is, therefore, unavailable."

This formal announcement was supplemented by the following statement:

"While the indications are that Russia has but a small quantity of raw materials available for export, that the purchasing power of Russia is very limited, and that for these reasons there will not be any considerable trade, if any, with Russia, this Government, however, does not feel the law-abiding people in Russia should be deprived of any assistance which can be derived from such trading as may be possible. The attitude of the United States toward the recognition of any faction in control of Soviet Russia has not changed. This Government is not willing by means of political recognition to lend positive assistance to a faction whose disregard of the principles of democracy is evidenced at home by the maintenance of a minority despotism, and abroad by an insidious campaign of propaganda to subvert popular government institutions expressive of the will of the majority."

Firms Asked That Ban Be Lifted.

Trade between the United States and Russia has been prohibited since the Bolsheviks gained control in that country, a year before the end of the world war. Previously it had been limited because of the demoralized condition of Russian railroads. Some exports, mostly war material, had been sent to Vladivostok and Archangel, but much of it never was moved to the interior.

Requests that the State Department lift the ban on trading with the Soviets have been made by many American exporting and other business firms, and American Government officials long have desired to remove the restrictions so that the suffering population might be aided in spite of the Bolsheviks. Fears had been voiced, however, that what ever went into the country for that population would be seized by the Bolsheviks and converted to their uses.

Trade Regulations Amended.

Coincident with the State Department's announcement, the War Trade Board section of the department issued a series of rulings amending its previous trade regulations to make them conform with the department's policy as to Soviet Russia, so that individual export license would be necessary for the shipment to Hungary, Austria, Bulgaria or Turkey of any materials susceptible of immediate use for war purposes. Such materials include locomotives, railroad rolling stock and motor cars. It is also provided that materials imported into this country may be exported to Russia or any other country without individual license when they are conveyed in transit through the territory of or via any port of the United States. The same exceptions are made as to the shipment of war materials to Russia and the other four countries as are made with respect to such materials originating in the United States.

The board also amended its general trade license so as to authorize all persons in the United States to trade and communicate with all persons with whom trade and communication is prohibited by the "trading with the enemy act," subject, however, to the limitations to the trading in war materials and any prom-erty which has been seized by the Alien Property Custodian or which property.

Norway's Finest Sardines

The distinguishing characteristic of this brand of Norwegian Sardines is, that they ARE better. There is something in the piquant flavor that wins you to Norcanner Sardines the first time you taste them. Do not confuse Norcanner products with a line of domestic fish put up under a similar label.

MRS. HARDING CORDIAL, GOOD BUSINESS WOMAN

Married to Senator 29 Years Ago Today—Husband Says
She Makes Good Waffles.

CLEVELAND, O., July 8.—Senator Warren G. Harding, the Republican presidential nominee, married Mrs. Florence Kling, only daughter of Amos B. Kling of Marion, July 29, 1891. He had no better campaign manager than his wife, and he has acknowledged it. She has worked with him to gain every honor he sought.

Mrs. Harding is a tall, slender woman, with gray streaks in her dark hair, an easy pose, a ready laugh and a businesslike mind. Her husband calls her "Duchess." What she thinks ranks very high among her attributes is that she makes fine waffles.

Mrs. Harding is what you could call a smart-looking woman. Her clothes give the impression of black and white, but her manners are so pleasing and her affability so marked that one forgets to look at her clothes. She is exquisitely groomed, and is the chatty sort of woman who can entertain you for an indefinite time without saying anything unkind about anybody. As a diplomat she should do well as the chief executive's wife.

But her most striking characteristic, perhaps, is her business ability. It is conceded on all sides that she has been a great factor in the successful business and political life of her distinguished husband.

Helper Make Paper Success.
She helped to make the Marion Star, the newspaper which is owned by Senator Harding, in Marion. For years she was the directing genius behind the money counter and her counsel was always acceptable in determining the policy of the paper.

In the early days senator Harding devoted his attention to the editorial end, while Mrs. Harding looked after the management of the business department. She checked the advertising, kept a line on the carrier boys and saw to it that the money came in.

There are hundreds of men in Marion today that once carried the Star. These men remember her as a kindly woman, who "paid strict attention" to business. And Mrs. Harding remembers many of "her carrier boys." She has watched them close success in any line she has rejoiced. "He was one of my boys," she has frequently said, when one of her former carriers forged ahead.

Keeps in Touch With Business.
A number of years ago she was forced to surrender her active business connection with the Star on account of her health. Since then, however, she has always kept her finger on the business pulse of the newspaper and knows what is going on.

Mrs. Harding is essentially kind, and says with a tear in her eye, "I haven't any children. I wish we had anything about me, but tell everybody what a wonderful man my husband is. I ought to know, and I am not doing this for campaign purposes. He is wonderful."

CHILDREN PARADE DOWNTOWN

Boyle Memorial Bible School Pupils Carry Flag.

About 150 children between 3 and 12 years old of the Boyle Memorial Daily Vocational Bible School paraded through the downtown section this morning. Each child carried an American flag.

In the parade was Tony Casenza, 5 years old, who came to this country three weeks ago from Italy. He is receiving his first lessons in Americanization at the school, as are many other children of foreign parentage.

MINERS FIRED ON IN WEST VIRGINIA FIELD

Shots at Tipple Answered by Workmen—Special Deputies Go to Scene.

By the Associated Press.
WILMINGTON, W. Va., July 8.—
Fifteen special deputies were sworn in here late yesterday by Judge Damon of the Circuit Court, and rushed to Roderfield, on the West Virginia-Kentucky line, where miners of the Borderland Coal Co. were fired upon by unidentified persons.

Reports last night indicated that the situation there was quiet, and the Deputy Sheriffs were on duty.
Authorities announced that their reports showed none of the Borderland miners was wounded. The miners were fired upon when entering a mine on the Kentucky side of the Tug River. The shooting came from the West Virginia side of the line.
The assailants also fired at the company's tippie on the West Virginia side.

The Borderland miners returned the fire, raking the hillside where the attackers were ambushed.
Reports from all other sections of this field last night indicated that quiet prevailed. Last week a strike of miners was called, effective in Mingo County, West Virginia, and Boyd County, Kentucky. Union leaders claim that a number of miners have been affected, while company representatives announce practically all mines are operating.

R. B. Page, a negro, who was arrested last Sunday night, when, according to authorities, he tried to lead a party of men to Roderfield where a shooting occurred Sunday, was given a hearing and held under $100 bond for examination later.

OLDEST ELECTRIC ELEVATED ROAD IN THE WORLD JUNKED

Freight Line in Armour Packing Plant Gives Way to More Modern Methods.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, July 8.—The oldest electric elevated road in the world, according to local accounts, has recently been junked here, to make way for more modern methods. It was a freight line in the plant of Armour & Co., at the stockyards. Previous to its construction in 1892, a steam elevated road had been tried out. New York City had started its first elevated road in 1867. The first means of transportation on that line was cable.

The New York line ran until 1871 and then broke down financially. It returned in 1876. Chicago later began building a steam elevated road, construction starting in December, 1889. June 6, 1892, in good season for the World's Fair the next year, the first section was put into operation.

Three years later the first electric passenger elevator in Chicago started and this was probably the first of the kind in the country. The freight elevated at the packing plant had then three years' operation behind it.
The packer elevator was installed as the answer to great congestion following delivery by truck in the plant. Andrew J. Shillinglaw, the company's first superintendent of electricity, worked out the elevated idea to haul food products from railway yards to plant and back again.
There were seven trolley cars, 950
trailers and three miles of overhead wires and tracks. Electric tractors have been found to do the same work with a saving of 16 per cent, and 60 of them have been put in.

ILLINOIS WHEAT LAND DISEASED
At a meeting yesterday at Granite City, presided over by State Director of Agriculture Adkins, it was announced that 27 square miles of east side wheat land are now proscribed territory because of grain disease, and must be subjected to regulations.
Every thresherman is to be made a Federal deputy and empowered to enforce the regulations. The State will provide, without cost, the disinfecting machinery. It was announced that Venice, Nameoki and Chouteau townships in Madison County and a small strip in St. Clair County are affected by the Australian disease which appeared last year.

Tired of fish on Friday?
Try a cheese dish

A GOOD many people who feel it their duty to abstain from meat on Friday dislike or fear fish.
They should try a Cheese Menu for the main dish of the meal.
Cheese affords all the nutriment of lean beef in condensed form.
One pound of cheese is equivalent in nutriment to three pounds of lean beef. It is the concentrated meat food of a gallon of whole milk.

Kraft Cheese in Tins is the modern, efficient, safe and sanitary way to buy cheese. It is the best cheese made, put up so it will keep indefinitely in any climate. It is always uniformly good because blended to insure uniform flavor, texture and consistency. Every speck is good. Comes in 8 delectable varieties. All grocers have it.

7 NEW STEEL SHIPS IN A DAY

Hog Island to Set World Record for Launchings on July 21.

PHILADELPHIA, July 8.—Seven steel 7525-ton cargo carriers will be sent into the Delaware River at the Hog Island shipyard on July 21, establishing a new world's record for ship launchings in one day. Matthew C. Brush, president of the American International Shipbuilding Corporation, in making the announcement, said the launching gang would be allotted only 50 minutes to complete the task.

When the last of the seven vessels leaves the ways, 132 ships will have been launched at Hog Island since August, 1918.

Probate Judge Holds There Was No Evidence That Sain Man Owed Salary to Sister.

Police Judge Holtcamp today refused to allow a claim for $10,500 by Miss Laura Becker of 2043 Russell avenue against the estate of her brother, Henry (Kid) Becker, professional gambler, who was shot and killed by highwaymen April 15, 1919.

Miss Becker alleged that the money was due her for services as private secretary, which she rendered her brother from Oct. 5, 1915, up to the time of his death. In his office at the Marquette Hotel, she valued the services at $250 a month. Former employees of Becker testified that they had never seen Becker pay his sister any salary, but that they frequently saw him give her money for her mother, Mrs. Caroline Becker. The latter testified that Becker provided her with a home and contributed $100 monthly toward her support. Lawyers representing J. A. Becker, executor of the estate, and Mrs. Jean Becker, the widow, contended that there was an implied agreement between Becker and his sister whereby she was to work in his office and he would support her and her mother.

Judge Holtcamp held that there was no evidence that Miss Becker had ever demanded salary from her brother, and that her services therefore must have been rendered in return for the money which Becker had given her mother.

Becker's estate was valued at more than $200,000. He left $5000 to his mother, $3000 to his sister, Laura; $1000 to each of two other sisters, and the remainder to his widow and daughter, Dorothy, the former receiving 60 per cent and the latter 40 per cent.

F. T. DIGGES, DRY ENFORCEMENT AGENT HERE, PROMOTED

Under His Direction There Have Been 114 Convictions and $28,761 in Fines Collected.

Frank T. Digges, who has been prohibition enforcement agent for the Eastern District of Missouri since Jan. 16 last, today received notice of his promotion to assistant supervising prohibition enforcement agent for the Southern Division, which includes all of Missouri, Texas and New Mexico and parts of Arkansas, Kansas and Nebraska. He will have his office in St. Louis and will be next in rank to David W. Gates, divisional enforcement director, whose headquarters are in Little Rock, Ark.

Since enforcement in the Missouri Eastern District has been under Digges' direction there have been 114 convictions of prohibition violation, the fines collected amounting to $28,761.48. More than 100 cases are pending.

In one illicit drug traffic case and one liquor case attempts were made to bribe him. In each instance he pretended to accept the money and then had the bribers arrested.

COUPLE WALKING TO KENTUCKY

William T. Holt, 63 years old, and his wife, 40, who arrived from Kansas on their way to visit relatives in Gravel Switch, Ky., started yesterday from East St. Louis to walk the remainder of the route after they had been robbed of $40, virtually all their money, by a man at Union Station who offered to buy tickets for them and then disappeared.

Engagementmaster Birge notified Chief of Police Mulconney, who sent telegrams to stations along the lines of the L. & N. Railroad, down the tracks of which the couple had departed, asking that assistance be given them.

Ripley Estate Valued at $720,000.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, July 8.—The estate of Edward Payson Ripley, late president of the Atchafalaya, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway, is valued at $720,000, according to an inventory filed in probate court today. Personal property valued at $600,000 and real estate in California and other states is included.

An Unfailing Way to Banish Hairs

(Beauty Notes)
Excess hairy growths can be removed in the privacy of your own home if you get a small original package of delatone and mix into a paste enough of the powder and water to cover the hairy surface. This should be left on the skin about 2 minutes, then removed and the skin washed and every trace of hair will have vanished. No harm or inconvenience can result from this treatment, but be sure you buy real delatone.

AUTO RUNS OVER FOOT OF TRAFFIC POLICEMAN

Three Children and Two Men Injured in Other Motor Accidents.

Michael Josias, 37 years old, of 914 North King's highway, traffic policeman at Broadway and Olive street, suffered a crushed left foot at 5 p. m. yesterday when an automobile driven by Benjamin Hawkins, 4209 W. Flinn, avenue, a negro, made a short turn west from Broadway into Olive street, the wheels passing over the policeman's foot.

Maud Ahrens, 9, of 4142 Taft avenue, suffered internal injuries, cuts and bruises when struck by a truck driven by John Gockel, 4233 Meramec street, at Chippewa street and Gravois avenue.

Harry A. Craig, 25, of 5510 Delmar boulevard, a pharmacist, suffered cuts on the head, face and shoulders when thrown through the windshield of an automobile driven by Oscar A. Sapper of University City, when the auto hit a trolley pole at Newstead avenue and Olive street at 9 p. m.

Joseph Rodriguez, 5, of 113 West Bluff street, was struck by an automobile driven by William Schultz, 330 Horn avenue, St. Louis County, in front of 7109 South Broadway. He suffered a fractured right leg and internal injuries.

Sal Weisman, 23, of East St. Louis, a switchman, was thrown out of his automobile at midnight when it hit a pole at Fourteenth and Linden streets. He suffered scalp wounds.

Esther A. Latture, 19, of 2609 North Ninth street, walked into the side of an automobile driven by Harry Pfeiffer, 2412 Menard street, at Tenth and Warren streets, suffering a gash on the temple and scalp wound.

William Holman, 25, of 4763 Hanover avenue, a deputy constable in St. Louis County, was injured seriously at 8 o'clock last night when he was knocked from his motorcycle by an automobile driven by Max A. Cohn, 5310 Maple avenue, vice president of the Sachs Manufacturing Co., as Cohn turned the machine east into Halliday avenue from Grand. Holman was riding north in Grand avenue.

Holman was taken to St. Anthony's Hospital, where doctors said he had suffered a compound fracture of the left leg and internal injuries. Cohn was arrested on a careless driving charge. He gave bond.

City News in Brief

GEORGE ERIC MACDONNELL JAMES, who obtained his degree of Bachelor of Science from the University of Wisconsin, in 1916, and is now on the faculty of Iowa State College, will be the guest of honor at the annual meeting of the American Association of University Professors, which will be held in the University of Wisconsin, at Madison, Wis., from August 14 to 18.

THE ASSOCIATION OF AMERICAN LAW SCHOOLS will hold its annual meeting at St. Louis, Aug. 22 and 24, in connection with the meeting of the American Bar Association. The sessions will be held in the Central Library, J. H. Zimmern and the University of Wisconsin School of Law, the arrangements committee. The only other Missouri member of the association is the State University Law School, represented by James F. McLaughlin of the Executive Committee.

JUDGE DAVIS BIGGS, A COMMISSIONER of the St. Louis Court of Appeals, has been appointed to the faculty of Washington University School of Law as lecturer on bills and notes. This will not interfere with his work in the Court of Appeals. The faculty of the school the coming year, other than Judge Biggs, will include: Tyrrell Williams, acting dean; Joseph H. Zimmern, Ernest B. Conant, William H. Allen, Edward C. Elliot, Jacob S. Raskin, Thomas J. Rutledge, Percy Weir, Sears Lehmann, Charles F. Williams and Judge John W. Calhoun.

ONE WHITE MAN AND SIX NEGROES were cut and injured on 22nd street, yesterday, when a stairway leading from the first to the second floor of the Southern Life Co. plant, 6700 Manchester avenue, gave way while they were carrying a heavy radiator down the stairs.

THE MEMBERS OF THE CARDINAL baseball club are to be the guests of Quentin Roosevelt Post No. 10, tonight, at the annual meeting of the post at Forester's Hall, 3619 Flinn avenue. Branch officers will be elected. The Cardinals will speak on sportsmanship and the American Legion. There will be dancing after the program.

JOHN SCHNEIDER, 52, of 3101 Pennsylvania avenue, a fireman at the plant of the Valley Park Cement Co., Michigan avenue and Wyoming street, was found dead, face downward, yesterday afternoon in the boiler room of the plant at 3 p. m. yesterday. His jaw was fractured and he had a wound in his head. Police reported they believed he had fallen while at work alone in the boiler room. An inquest will be held.

Woman With Revolver Held. A woman who told the police she was Mrs. Pauline Mahoney, 34 years old, of 2981 Garfield avenue, was found by a policeman seated on the steps outside the office of Dr. Frank Smith, 3624 South Broadway, at 3 p. m. yesterday. She held a revolver in her right hand and concealed hospital for observation.

For Your Vacation

A Gay Silk Umbrella

Dame Fashion—this season decrees that the last word in smart silk Umbrellas is color. No longer is dull prosaic black in vogue, but your "rain or shine" Umbrella must match your favored color scheme.

Featured this week at Jaccard's is an exceptional exhibition of Colored Silk Umbrellas with attractive novelty handles of ivory, bakelite, pyraline and leather.

Perhaps a cool forest green will create the desired effect, a deep lustrous purple or navy blue. Our array is comprehensive and complete.

Colored Silk Umbrellas in two sizes—22-inch, 10-ribbed frame, or 25-inch, 8-ribbed frame, range upward in price from $10.50 to $35

Especially featured are "Gift Umbrellas" of supreme quality with silver trimmed handles of unusual beauty. All are fashioned of rainproof, sun-fast umbrella silk.

Special attention given to mail orders, which are quickly and carefully filled.

Store Hours: 8:30 to 5; Friday, 8:30 to 5:30. Closed all day Saturday.

Twelve children earned $18.01 for the Post-Dispatch Pure Milk and Free Ice Fund by a show which they presented one evening last week on the lawn at 4407 Delor street. Between the acts of the performance, refreshments were sold by some of the workers. The children who assisted with the benefit were: Edna and Josephine Coyle, Marie Borscholdt, Homer Heir, Lester Siefer, Kenneth and George Diekmann, Winifred Miller, Julian Crawford, Denin Seyforth, Agnes Willis and Ida Kurlick. A vaudeville show on the lawn at 5119 Ridge avenue last Friday earned $5.25 for the babies. Mary, Virginia and Jane Hayes, Marion and Norma Calmer, and Jane and Eleanor Julian and Alfred Gordon Julian Jr. were the performers. Joe Vollmer and Ray Rutterford furnished the music.

The Busy Bee Club of Clifton Heights made $6.07 for the Milk and Ice Fund by presenting a play and selling refreshments. The little members who took part were: Ernest Hill, Louise Nangle, Ruth Garstang, Honor Leuke, Dorothy Berg, Edward Lyon, George Pring and Newell Gohdring. The benefit of the babies at 3650 A Botanical avenue, the net receipts amounting to $5. The program consisted of a violin solo, toe dance and a one-act comedy playlet, "Mutt and Jeff." The program concluding with moving pictures. The sale of popcorn balls added materially to the receipts. Assisting Master Langenbach were Junior Davis, Viola Jakle and Lucetta Dronen.

A small show at 4924 Berthold avenue by Mary Jane Beecher and Rose and Josephine Fontana brought $9 cents to the fund. Only one cash contribution was received in yesterday's mail—$1 from A. Barkow, 3029 Glasgow place.

LINDELL BOULEVARD HOME ROBBED; FAMILY AWAY

Eight Other Burglaries in Which Money, Clothing and Jewelry Are Stolen, Reported.

The home of Mrs. Kate Castleman, 2683 Lindell boulevard, was found broken into and ransacked yesterday. A policeman who found a window in the rear of the home broken also found a $200 rug taken from the home lying in a driveway near the garage. Police were unable to ascertain what was stolen as Mrs. Castleman is out of the city.

Mrs. Dagmar Robinson, occupying an apartment at 4432 Washington boulevard, told the police yesterday her suite had been robbed of $545 in jewelry while she was in a hospital. She discovered the robbery yesterday, when she returned home.

Other burglaries reported were in the homes of Joseph N. Wallace, 4620 McPherson avenue, $100 and jewelry valued at $175 taken; Edward Kallenbach, 4616 Ashland avenue, bottle whiskey and $200 in jewelry; Edward J. Britton, 5263 Minerva avenue, $5 and $200 in jewelry and clothing; Henderson Ridgley, 5216 Vernon avenue, ransacked, family out of the city; Edward W. Price, 5080 Wren avenue, $150 in jewelry; Mrs. Addie Davidson, 3307 Shenandoah avenue, a rug valued at $40 and a dressmaker's "dummy," valued at $20, and Edward Drier, 4475 Norfolk avenue, $30.

WOMAN STRUCK BY STREET CAR

Mrs. Rena Beach Suffers Fractured Shoulder and Internal Injuries.

Mrs. Rena Beach, 28 years old, of 2225 North Tenth street, suffered a fractured shoulder and internal injuries at 9 p. m. yesterday, when struck by an eastbound Bellefontaine car, at Marcus and Florissant avenues.

Police were told Mrs. Beach had alighted from a westbound car and started to the south side of the street as the eastbound car approached. Motorman Andrew Wildhaber said he saw her and rang his gong and she apparently became confused after crossing the eastbound rails and stepped back directly in the path of the car.

HAS HIS BUTLER ARRESTED

B. B. Culver Says Auto Was Used Without Permission.

Beatram E. Culver of 21 Kingsbury place yesterday caused the arrest of his butler, Milton Mosbey, 19, a negro, who he said had used the Culver automobile without permission. Culver explained he had been out of the city, returning yesterday. Before leaving, he said, he had mechanics lock the mechanism of the automobile so as to prevent its use in his absence. He said he has learned that Mosbey employed a mechanic to disconnect the lock and thereafter used the machine, particularly on June 30, he said, when he learned Mosbey had a "party" in the automobile. Mosbey made no statement.

COCOANUTOIL FINE FOR WASHING HAIR

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.
Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Multisulfated coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.
Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.
You can get Multisulfated coconut oil shampoo at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.

SIX MONTHS' SENTENCE FOR FAKE COLLECTOR

Head of "Golden Crown Association" Admits None of $450 He Got Went to Organization.

Charles B. Winchester, 32 years old, of 2525 Washington avenue, "Lieutenant-General of the Golden Crown Association," was sentenced to six months in the workhouse today after a trial on a charge of petty larceny growing out of the manner of his collection of funds for the association.
Winchester, in his testimony, declared that he had collected about $450, and admitted that none of it had been turned over to the Golden Crowners, but said that all but $100 had been spent in caring for his family, a wife and 19-month-old baby.
His arrest was brought about by the Charities Bureau of the Chamber of Commerce. Winchester formerly was a collector for the Christian Volunteers' Church, and as such, obtained $5 last October from the Langenberg Hat Co., 412 North Twelfth street. He returned there last May and was asked if the company ever had contributed to his organization. He showed the October entry in a book he carried. He was given another $5, and although at that time engaged in his work as collector for the Golden Crown Association, signed a receipt with the name of the Christian Volunteers' Church.
The Golden Crown Association was organized by Winchester and E. W. Tallant, formerly connected with the Christian Volunteers' Church, "for charity work, general uplift and the establishment of missions, churches and soup kitchens."
Winchester said that it was planned to spend the $100 he had remaining from his collection to give a picnic for poor children in August. He said it was planned to obtain other contributions for the picnic.

KING GEORGE ORDERS MILITARY FUNERAL FOR GEN. GORGAS

British Ruler Sends Messages of Condolence to U. S. Government and to Family.
WASHINGTON, July 8.—By command of King George, Major-General Gorgas will be accorded the military funeral of a Major-General in the British army. The State Department was advised today by Ambassador Davis at London. The services will be held at St. Paul's Cathedral, London, at noon tomorrow.
Ambassador Davis also forwarded a message of condolence to the American Government and the family of Major-General Gorgas.
"His majesty's Government," he said, "has long regarded with admiration the work of this distinguished servant of the United States Government, to whose zeal and energy is largely due the completion of the Panama Canal."

HEMAN ESTATE TO WIDOW

The will of August H. Heman, former Mayor of University City, who died last Saturday, was filed with the Probate Court at Clayton today, leaving the total estate to his widow, Mrs. Leota Heman, 6361 Washington boulevard. The document, which was dated June 25, 1916, was short.
It was said at the offices of the Heman Construction Co. that the real property alone would aggregate $250,000, and that Heman, besides being president of that firm and the Trinidad Asphalt Co. of Trinidad, Colo., was a large stockholder in the Meramec Portland Cement and Material Co., and several oil companies.

Three Canyons to the Coast
You see "Fifty Swiss Alps in One"—without a passport—on your trip to the Pacific Coast through
The Canadian Pacific Rockies
And though you ride for twenty-four hours past peaks that touch the sky, forests full of big game, innumerable glaciers, you avoid extreme altitudes because the Canadian Pacific trains trail rivers that built a natural highway across the mountains millions of years ago—the Bow, Kicking Horse, and Fraser are the principle of several spectacular canyons you follow from Calgary in the foothills of the Rockies to Vancouver on the Coast.
You will wish to stop off, if your time permits, at Banff Springs Hotel, the Chateau at Lovely Lake Louise, Emerald Lake Chalet, Glacier House, or Sicomac—magic castles of Alpine Fairyland.
From Vancouver direct connections for Alaska, quaint Victoria, and all points on the Pacific slope.

New Chemical Kills Bed Bugs P. D. Q.
P. D. Q. (Peaky Devil's Quinine) is the name of a new golden colored chemical discovery by Dr. Price that actually kills the worst infested house of bed bugs, roaches, fleas, ants and their eggs. They don't have time to kick after you do after them with P. D. Q. A 25c package of P. D. Q. makes a quart of strong liquid, and goes farther than a barrel of the old-fashioned, dangerous DDT. P. D. Q. coats and kills their eggs and prevents hatching. P. D. Q. is a patent agent in every box to enable you to get them in the hard-to-get-at places, and save lives.
P. D. Q. for family use, 25c. Special Hospital and Hotel size, $2.50. Makes 5 gallons, contains 3 quarts—four drug-pist can supply you, or sent prepaid to your address either upon receipt of price by the Overland Co., 1000-1002, 1004, 1006, 1008, 1010, 1012, 1014, 1016, 1018, 1020, 1022, 1024, 1026, 1028, 1030, 1032, 1034, 1036, 1038, 1040, 1042, 1044, 1046, 1048, 1050, 1052, 1054, 1056, 1058, 1060, 1062, 1064, 1066, 1068, 1070, 1072, 1074, 1076, 1078, 1080, 1082, 1084, 1086, 1088, 1090, 1092, 1094, 1096, 1098, 1100, 1102, 1104, 1106, 1108, 1110, 1112, 1114, 1116, 1118, 1120, 1122, 1124, 1126, 1128, 1130, 1132, 1134, 1136, 1138, 1140, 1142, 1144, 1146, 1148, 1150, 1152, 1154, 1156, 1158, 1160, 1162, 1164, 1166, 1168, 1170, 1172, 1174, 1176, 1178, 1180, 1182, 1184, 1186, 1188, 1190, 1192, 1194, 1196, 1198, 1200, 1202, 1204, 1206, 1208, 1210, 1212, 1214, 1216, 1218, 1220, 1222, 1224, 1226, 1228, 1230, 1232, 1234, 1236, 1238, 1240, 1242, 1244, 1246, 1248, 1250, 1252, 1254, 1256, 1258, 1260, 1262, 1264, 1266, 1268, 1270, 1272, 1274, 1276, 1278, 1280, 1282, 1284, 1286, 1288, 1290, 1292, 1294, 1296, 1298, 1300, 1302, 1304, 1306, 1308, 1310, 1312, 1314, 1316, 1318, 1320, 1322, 1324, 1326, 1328, 1330, 1332, 1334, 1336, 1338, 1340, 1342, 1344, 1346, 1348, 1350, 1352, 1354, 1356, 1358, 1360, 1362, 1364, 1366, 1368, 1370, 1372, 1374, 1376, 1378, 1380, 1382, 1384, 1386, 1388, 1390, 1392, 1394, 1396, 1398, 1400, 1402, 1404, 1406, 1408, 1410, 1412, 1414, 1416, 1418, 1420, 1422, 1424, 1426, 1428, 1430, 1432, 1434, 1436, 1438, 1440, 1442, 1444, 1446, 1448, 1450, 1452, 1454, 1456, 1458, 1460, 1462, 1464, 1466, 1468, 1470, 1472, 1474, 1476, 1478, 1480, 1482, 1484, 1486, 1488, 1490, 1492, 1494, 1496, 1498, 1500, 1502, 1504, 1506, 1508, 1510, 1512, 1514, 1516, 1518, 1520, 1522, 1524, 1526, 1528, 1530, 1532, 1534, 1536, 1538, 1540, 1542, 1544, 1546, 1548, 1550, 1552, 1554, 1556, 1558, 1560, 1562, 1564, 1566, 1568, 1570, 1572, 1574, 1576, 1578, 1580, 1582, 1584, 1586, 1588, 1590, 1592, 1594, 1596, 1598, 1600, 1602, 1604, 1606, 1608, 1610, 1612, 1614, 1616, 1618, 1620, 1622, 1624, 1626, 1628, 1630, 1632, 1634, 1636, 1638, 1640, 1642, 1644, 1646, 1648, 1650, 1652, 1654, 1656, 1658, 1660, 1662, 1664, 1666, 1668, 1670, 1672, 1674, 1676, 1678, 1680, 1682, 1684, 1686, 1688, 1690, 1692, 1694, 1696, 1698, 1700, 1702, 1704, 1706, 1708, 1710, 1712, 1714, 1716, 1718, 1720, 1722, 1724, 1726, 1728, 1730, 1732, 1734, 1736, 1738, 1740, 1742, 1744, 1746, 1748, 1750, 1752, 1754, 1756, 1758, 1760, 1762, 1764, 1766, 1768, 1770, 1772, 1774, 1776, 1778, 1780, 1782, 1784, 1786, 1788, 1790, 1792, 1794, 1796, 1798, 1800, 1802, 1804, 1806, 1808, 1810, 1812, 1814, 1816, 1818, 1820, 1822, 1824, 1826, 1828, 1830, 1832, 1834, 1836, 1838, 1840, 1842, 1844, 1846, 1848, 1850, 1852, 1854, 1856, 1858, 1860, 1862, 1864, 1866, 1868, 1870, 1872, 1874, 1876, 1878, 1880, 1882, 1884, 1886, 1888, 1890, 1892, 1894, 1896, 1898, 1900, 1902, 1904, 1906, 1908, 1910, 1912, 1914, 1916, 1918, 1920, 1922, 1924, 1926, 1928, 1930, 1932, 1934, 1936, 1938, 1940, 1942, 1944, 1946, 1948, 1950, 1952, 1954, 1956, 1958, 1960, 1962, 1964, 1966, 1968, 1970, 1972, 1974, 1976, 1978, 1980, 1982, 1984, 1986, 1988, 1990, 1992, 1994, 1996, 1998, 2000.

This Makes the Curl Stay in Your Hair
The silmerine method is unusually popular just now, according to the druggists. This is largely due to the warm weather and because women are now spending so much of their time out of doors. This simple method not only produces the loveliest, natural looking curls and waves, but it keeps the hair in curl no matter how hot or how moist the day, or how hard the wind blows.
All one need do is to wet a clean tooth brush with liquid silmerine, draw this through the hair before doing it up, and the hair will dry in just the sweetest wave and curl desired. This silmerine keeps the hair beautifully soft, silky and lustrous. A few ounces of liquid silmerine will last for months.

A Week's Cruise $72.50
on 4 Great Lakes Meals & Berth Included
Chicago to Duluth and Return on the Big, New Cruising Steel Steamship "North American"

Think of the pleasure on a warm, sultry day of leaving the din and dust of the city behind you and gliding out into the cool, refreshing waters of Lake Michigan for a week's cruise through four great lakes—a trip of over 2,000 miles of beautiful scenery, shore line, islands, rivers and bays—care-free, you will give yourself up to a spell of enjoyment—you will eat well and sleep well, and after a too quickly ending week you will return home thoroughly refreshed and invigorated. Take this wonderful trip via Lake Michigan to Mackinac Island, via Beautiful St. Mary's River to the Locks at the " Soo," via Lake Superior and Portage Canal to Houghton (Hancock) and Duluth. Returning via Lake Superior, Lake Huron and Georgian Bay (30,000 Islands) to Mackinac Island then via Lake Michigan to Chicago.
If you enjoy seeing places of interest, the numerous stops and short cruising distance from the shore, during the greater part of the trip, offer sights of wonder and beauty that are sure to please you. You can be quiet and excluded, if desired, or if you like a real good time there is the continual round of deck games cards, etc., during the day, and dancing, musicals and other entertainments in the evening. If you want to go fishing or take a tramp in the woods, stop-over privileges at a number of points will enable you to do so.
For the children there are the open-air playgrounds and deck games, with attendant in charge to relieve the parents of care. Combined with all these pleasures, you will have conveniences and comforts on this magnificent steamer equal to those on the best Atlantic Line. The dining service and food equal to that of the best hotels. All state-rooms and parlor rooms are outside rooms and have windows or ports to insure perfect ventilation. Have running water, call bells and electric light—beds have the finest mattresses and springs; extra long and extra large—bath and toilet in connection with parlor rooms and close by all state-rooms. Steamer equipped with wireless and every modern device for safety of passengers.

PROHIBITION PARTY CONVENTION JULY 21

Fate of Organization to be Considered at Meeting at Lincoln, Neb.

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Ill., July 8.—Now that prohibition is here, the fate of the Prohibition party will come up for decision at its regular presidential convention in Lincoln, Neb., July 21. The prospect at present is that the party will put a presidential ticket in the field again this fall, Virgil G. Hinshaw, chairman of the Prohibition National Committee, said today.

"Both the Republican and Democratic parties by omitting a plank endorsing the eighteenth amendment have diametrically failed in living up to the standards demanded by the American people in 45 States," said Hinshaw. "We of the Prohibition party consider it incumbent upon us to maintain a party organization to give expression to the millions of dry voters in the country."

For the first time in the history of a Prohibition national convention one of the sessions will be given over to law enforcement mass meeting. Another new feature of the 1920 convention will be the discussion of world prohibition. "Woman's Hour" is the theme of a third session.

Will Meet July 21. The Lincoln convention, which will be the party's thirteenth quadrennial gathering, will be called to order at 10 o'clock on the morning of July 21 by Chairman Hinshaw. After reading of the call by Mrs. Frances E. Beauchamp of Lexington, Ky., secretary of the national committee, Aaron Watkins of Germantown, O., as temporary chairman, will make the keynote address. Watkins was the party's vice-presidential nominee in 1918 and 1912.

Clinton N. Howard of Rochester, N. Y., who presented the case for prohibition before the Republican national convention for the World Prohibition Federation, will then speak of "The Eighteenth Amendment—The Lost Plank." Clay Needham of Los Angeles, Cal., will follow with an address, "Why Democracy Shied at It." W. G. Calderwood of Minneapolis is to speak then of "How the Committee of 48 Met the Call." Calderwood is national vice-chairman of the party.

Committee reports will be heard and permanent officers elected on the afternoon of the first day, this session closing with an address by Dr. D. Leigh Colvin of New York, president of the Intercollegiate Prohibition Association. Dr. Colvin's subject is "The Message of Our Party's Half Century History for Today."

Thursday morning is scheduled to bring election of the National Prohibition Committee and the report on platform and resolutions. The Rev. Elton R. Shaw of Chicago, financial secretary of the Intercollegiate Prohibition Association, will make an address.

Women to Have Floor.

Women have the floor to themselves Thursday afternoon. "Women's Entrance into Politics" will be the theme of the first speaker, Mrs. Viola D. Romans of Columbus, O. The other speakers and their subjects are: "Protection of Home Interests," Hortense Ropp, Roanoke, Va.; "Woman's Influence on Legislation," Marie C. Brehm, Los Angeles, Cal.; "How Far Will Her Influence Reach?" Margaret Wintinger, Chicago, and "The Dawn of a New Era," Mrs. Florence Slown Hyde, Erie, Ill. Several of the speakers are vice-presidents of their State W. C. T. U. The evening before the convention opens will be given to the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

Thursday night is to be devoted to the "Prohibition Foundation," an incorporation for the extension of national and world prohibition work. Adoption of platform and presidential nominations are scheduled for Friday morning.

Kills Pesky Bed Bugs P. D. Q.

Just think, a 35c box of P. D. Q. (Pesky Devil) quietly makes a quart enough to kill a million bedbugs, roaches, fleas or cockroaches and stops future generations by killing the eggs and does not injure the clothing.

Liquid fire to the bedbugs is what P. D. Q. is like. It is a justly famed heat repellent. Patent about free in every package of P. D. Q. enables you to kill them and their eggs in the cracks. Look for the devil's head on every box, then you'll have what Howards have found to be the best insecticide known to science. Special Hospital size $2.50 makes five applications. 3 cent size either size at your drugist. Sold by Julius A. Dohm Drug Co., Wain, Wain Drug Co., Johnson Bros. and all other leading drugists.

Cake Soap—the rubbing wears the life out of your clothes
"Washing Powder"—good enough for scrubbing but ruinous for clothes

WITH cake soap you rub till you wear the life out of your garments. If you add washing powders full of harsh chemicals, they "eat" the clothes, and ruin your hands.

But you have to get the clothes white. And they go to pieces! Worn out by friction. Destroyed by strong alkalis.

You need not go on ruining your clothes like this.

Soak them in a tubful of soapy, bubbly Rinso suds. Rinso is not a cake soap! Not a "washing powder!" But a wonderful new form of soap—in fine granules.

Granules so cleansing they loosen all the dirt while the clothes are soaking overnight or for three hours in the morning.

Then you rinse the clothes! And hang them out! Snowy white without boiling or any real rubbing! The pure Rinso suds have soaked the clothes clean.

Don't wash the old way another week. One package of Rinso will show you how to save hours of exhausting work, how to save yourself and save your clothes. Get Rinso from your grocer and follow the easy directions on the package. Lever Bros. Co., Cambridge, Mass. (Makers of Lux.)

I know that my retirement will make no difference in its cardinal principles, that it will always fight for progress and reform, never tolerate injustice or corruption, always fight demagogues of all parties, never belong to any party, always oppose privileged classes and public plunderers, never lack sympathy with the poor, always remain devoted to the public welfare, never be satisfied with merely printing news, always be drastically independent, never be afraid to attack wrong, whether by predatory plutocracy or predatory poverty.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

Firemen's "S. O. S." Whistles

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:
Today's paper gives an account of the Langan Furniture Co.'s fire, where one fireman was killed and six injured. Smoke, spray, crash of falling glass and balconies, and the general din and excitement which naturally attends a big fire. And three stories up, out of sight, imprisoned men, badly wounded, calling for help, trying to make themselves heard above the uproar. On some occasions, it is possible for men so situated to be unable to make an outcry above a whistle. To be properly located, to receive aid and to receive it promptly, may be in hundreds of cases, a matter of life and death.

Why not have a fireman's S. O. S. siren whistle, to be given him upon entering the department and required to be worn at all times when on duty? This whistle should have a distinctive, penetrating note, not to be confused with any other sound whatever, and to be used only by firemen and for this particular purpose. It would not only bring instant aid from his mates but would be recognized by bystanding ex-firemen and firemen temporarily off duty. It would be a good idea, also, to have fire departments everywhere, not only adopt the plan, but make the article or its signal uniform, so that men in different localities would everywhere recognize it and respond instantly, subconsciously, for there are times of danger when even seconds count.

The railroad men have their signals—the policemen their whistles—there is the S. O. S. on the sea. Firemen continually run risks, emergencies constantly confront them, each fire is, in fact, a new problem. None of them can yet be shown the white feather—backed down or called for help unduly. And when men like this are bruised and dead and dying, under a ton or so of bricks, three stories up, they ought to be able to get help without resorting to the strain, and often the inadequacy of muffled calling.

LULU MACCURE CLARKE.

Leave It to the People.

Opera in the Rain.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:
I was one of the unfortunate who attended the Thursday performance of "The Mikado," which was interrupted by rain. Quoting from the Post-Dispatch of July 3: "The show proceeded under a heavy drizzle. By eliminating the intermission between the acts, and by ruthless slashing in the second act, the management contrived to reach the end of the opera shortly after 10 o'clock, thus avoiding the necessity of honoring rain checks."

Now, I want to know, is it honest and just to an audience that has spent time and money to see the opera, to force them to witness a show under a heavy drizzle, and with some scenes omitted? The management should have discontinued the performance at the first raindrops, permitting the audience to use their rain checks instead of "rushing" the show through.

We, the audience, have some inalienable rights which should be respected among which is the right to enjoy a performance in peace and comfort, instead of standing in the side lines or in the rain-soaked seats watching the performance being "rushed through."

"VOX POPULI"

Possible Prohibition Parallels.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:
Many think that with the women voting there will be no hope of any modification of the "bone dry" law. Now I believe that the majority of women are as keen as men for personal liberty and individual rights. Then there are the millions who see their temperate husbands, fathers or brothers (faithful and hard-working), deprived of their beneficial and enjoyable glass of wine or beer because a comparatively few take too much. I hope, too, they will analyze this unreasonable law and picture possible parallels such as the following:

Suppose a league was formed that might be called "The Anti-Extravagant Female Dress League," and propaganda spread showing the evils traceable directly or indirectly to extravagant and gay dress (and underwear)—such as delinquency, domestic brawls, separations, embezzlements, divorces, suicides and murders—exaggerated, of course, a la Anti-Saloon League.

Suppose a law was enacted to prohibit women from wearing hats that cost more than one dollar and allowed only half of one per cent of combined lace, silk and bright color thereon, and all other articles of costume of stated low cost and subject to the half of one per cent proviso—the dress to reveal only the ankles. They could be allowed to make their own costumes while we "mere men" cannot make a drop of the producer of wit, brilliancy and sociability for home use. As a matter of fact, drunkenness has been decreasing for many years past and extravagance in female dress and underwear is increasing.

"HOPEFUL IRISHMAN."

THE LIGHT OF REASON.

The independent elements of the people, who are not bound by partisan ties nor influenced by party bias, will decide the election next November. There is plenty of time for deliberation and sound conclusion in the light of party platforms, personal records and campaign utterances.

Putting aside partisan clamor and recrimination, the shouting and the tumult of organs and spellbinders and the whisperings of the ghouls, we ought to consider solely what result will best serve the public welfare—the whole people; what will contribute most to the peace, prosperity and content of all the people. In considering public welfare in its largest sense, we cannot divorce the United States from the remainder of the world, or the American people from the rest of mankind. We are all bound together in a common destiny. One nation cannot shut itself off from communication and commerce with other nations, nor exploit other nations, nor strive solely for its own selfish interests, without disaster to itself and to all.

We may assume that the candidates on the tickets of both parties are good citizens, without malign intent; on the contrary, with benevolent intent to serve the people. They are not in a base conspiracy to injure any part of the people or to wreck the country.

Assuming their good intentions, we must question the practical wisdom of their policies and purposes, the interests and influences moving them and the soundness of the plans they propose for governmental action.

The chief issue upon which there is a direct conflict is the peace covenant. Which path shall the nation take, that of generous co-operation with other nations to work out plans to guarantee peace on a basis of just, international dealing, reason and arbitration; or shall we stand apart from joint efforts to set up international justice and peace?

Does the League of Nations, framed and agreed upon at the peace conference by all the nations engaged in war against imperial conquest, represent a genuine desire to guarantee justice and peace? Was it designed to promote equity, peace and amity, or to foment war?

We know it was forged in the white heat of a struggle for liberty, with the purpose of preventing wars. Will it work to that end?

Which party and which candidate will better serve the public welfare by promoting harmonious relations between the public, the management and the wage earners of industry? Where shall we find the better understanding and the sounder purpose to do justice to all elements of the people, and thus lay the foundation for that general prosperity and content which are essential to progressive democracy?

Where shall we find the greater strength and courage to resist the influence of the special interest against the general interest—the effort of wealth and power to exploit the common people, the tollers with hand and brain?

The question of Federal prohibition is not touched upon in either party platform, yet it cannot be banished from the public mind or from politics, because back of it there is a greater issue than any question of restraining the liquor evil or promoting temperance—there is the issue of individual rights and liberty, against tyrannical encroachment and restriction, of despotic paternalism against democracy.

In which party and in which candidate shall we find the clearer understanding of this issue and the stronger disposition to resist intolerance and tyranny which menace democracy?

So with all the questions which concern public welfare and the attitude and task of government in the domestic and foreign field, independent voters should searchingly examine the platforms and performances of the parties, the character, records and purposes of candidates. The country must have not only a sound, liberal, progressive program, but men with the capacity, energy and courage to put it through—men free from bias and from influences that paralyze beneficent action.

If the Republicans can't win with Babier in and the Democrats are bound to lose with Reed out, it looks as if a third party ought to start flitting with Missouri.

ST. LOUIS NEEDS ELBOW ROOM.

One of the most noteworthy showings in census figures is the 181 per cent increase in University City's population. The percentage would have been considerably larger had the count been made as of July 1 instead of as of Jan. 1, the increase during these last six months having been greater than that of prior two and three year periods. This, as well as other suburbs, is wholly dependent on St. Louis. Every factor contributing to its growth is a factor of St. Louis origin. Barring the mere matter of votes for local officers, its citizens are as much St. Louisans as the residents of a city ward. Its percentage of increase is a more reliable indication of the vitality of forces contributing to St. Louis' upbuilding than St. Louis' own percentage.

Had an area of like extent and as favorable for construction operations been located within the city limits, we may believe that its growth would have been even more rapid during these 10 years. St. Louis' great need is for expansion, not so much for the sake of the population that would be annexed as for the territory that would be added, the elbow room for new accomplishments.

THE TEXAS ATROCITY.

The evil consequences of contempt for the law may be seen in the atrocity at Paris, Tex., where a mob burned two negroes at the stake. The negroes were charged with having killed two white men in an altercation over money matters. They were not charged with the unspeakable crime which law-abiding citizens in every other respect have falsely held to justify instant and extreme lawlessness.

This is not the first instance, to be sure, where negroes have been lynched for crime other than the one alleged justifying cause. It is a matter of dreadful record that negroes have at times fallen victims to the mob's fury for comparatively trivial offenses. And all such brutal floutings of the law are the inevitable progeny of the theory of lawlessness under any circumstances whatsoever.

The stability of our institutions depends upon respect for the law and uncompromising enforcement of the law by officers charged with that duty. As regards lynching, it is notorious that efforts at prosecuting the leaders of mobs have usually been perfunctory and not infrequently farcical. As a result the mob spirit has actually been encouraged. How avidly it has responded is told in those periodical outbreaks of savagery.

The murderous practice of lynching can only be stopped by the sternest enforcement of the law against individuals or mobs who take the law into their own hands, whatever the provocation. Supplementary to that official integrity and vigilance must be the refusal of legislative bodies to pass nonenforceable laws.

The City of London has presented a jeweled sword to Gen. Pershing for his own and the distinguished service of his troops in the world war. The notion that America acquitted herself with some distinction in the fighting seems to prevail everywhere except with certain parties in the United States.

FUND "DRIVE" IDEA PLAYING OUT.

The success of the elaborately organized "drives" to obtain funds for various war charities furnished a suggestion and plan of effort on which the collection of money for a long list of worthy objects was continued after the fighting ceased.

That, while the American people were habituated to the idea of giving and an emulative spirit prevailed, not only among those soliciting funds, but among donors, opportunity was taken to bring the merits of many appealing causes to public attention is indeed most fortunate.

The finances of the churches and of miscellaneous religious and ameliorative movements have been greatly strengthened. Some worthy movements have undoubtedly been placed on a basis of permanent prosperity. More than $100,000,000 is said to have been contributed to higher education.

But we are told that the "drive" idea is playing out. Lack of discrimination in some instances and frequent excess of zeal have caused weariness to the generous. Assignment of quotas to be contributed, not merely by designated territory, but even by individuals of particular station in life, involved an objectionable quality. It did not lack the flavor of those instances in which "beggars set themselves up as choosers." Certainly the assumption on the part of some to dictate to others what their duty was became a great business in this country for many months, though the offensive feature was ignored in the unquenchable fervor for giving. But it seems that the pitcher has been carried to the fountain a little too often. People no longer "give until it hurts." Most of them don't give at all.

Nevertheless, the long period when the spirit of altruism may be said to have run riot, when less thought was taken of self and more thought of others, when the greater blessedness of giving as compared with receiving had almost universal recognition, in fact became the fashion, is a wonderful period often to be recalled in the future.

An eagerness to bestow, of course, will always continue in America, but if there has been a subsidence in the generous enthusiasm of the recent past, there will be compensations. In giving to many of the organized benevolences which have handled tremendous sums, the donors were denied the pleasure and profit of seeing the betterments made possible, the distress relieved by their own contributions, and to see that is good for the soul.

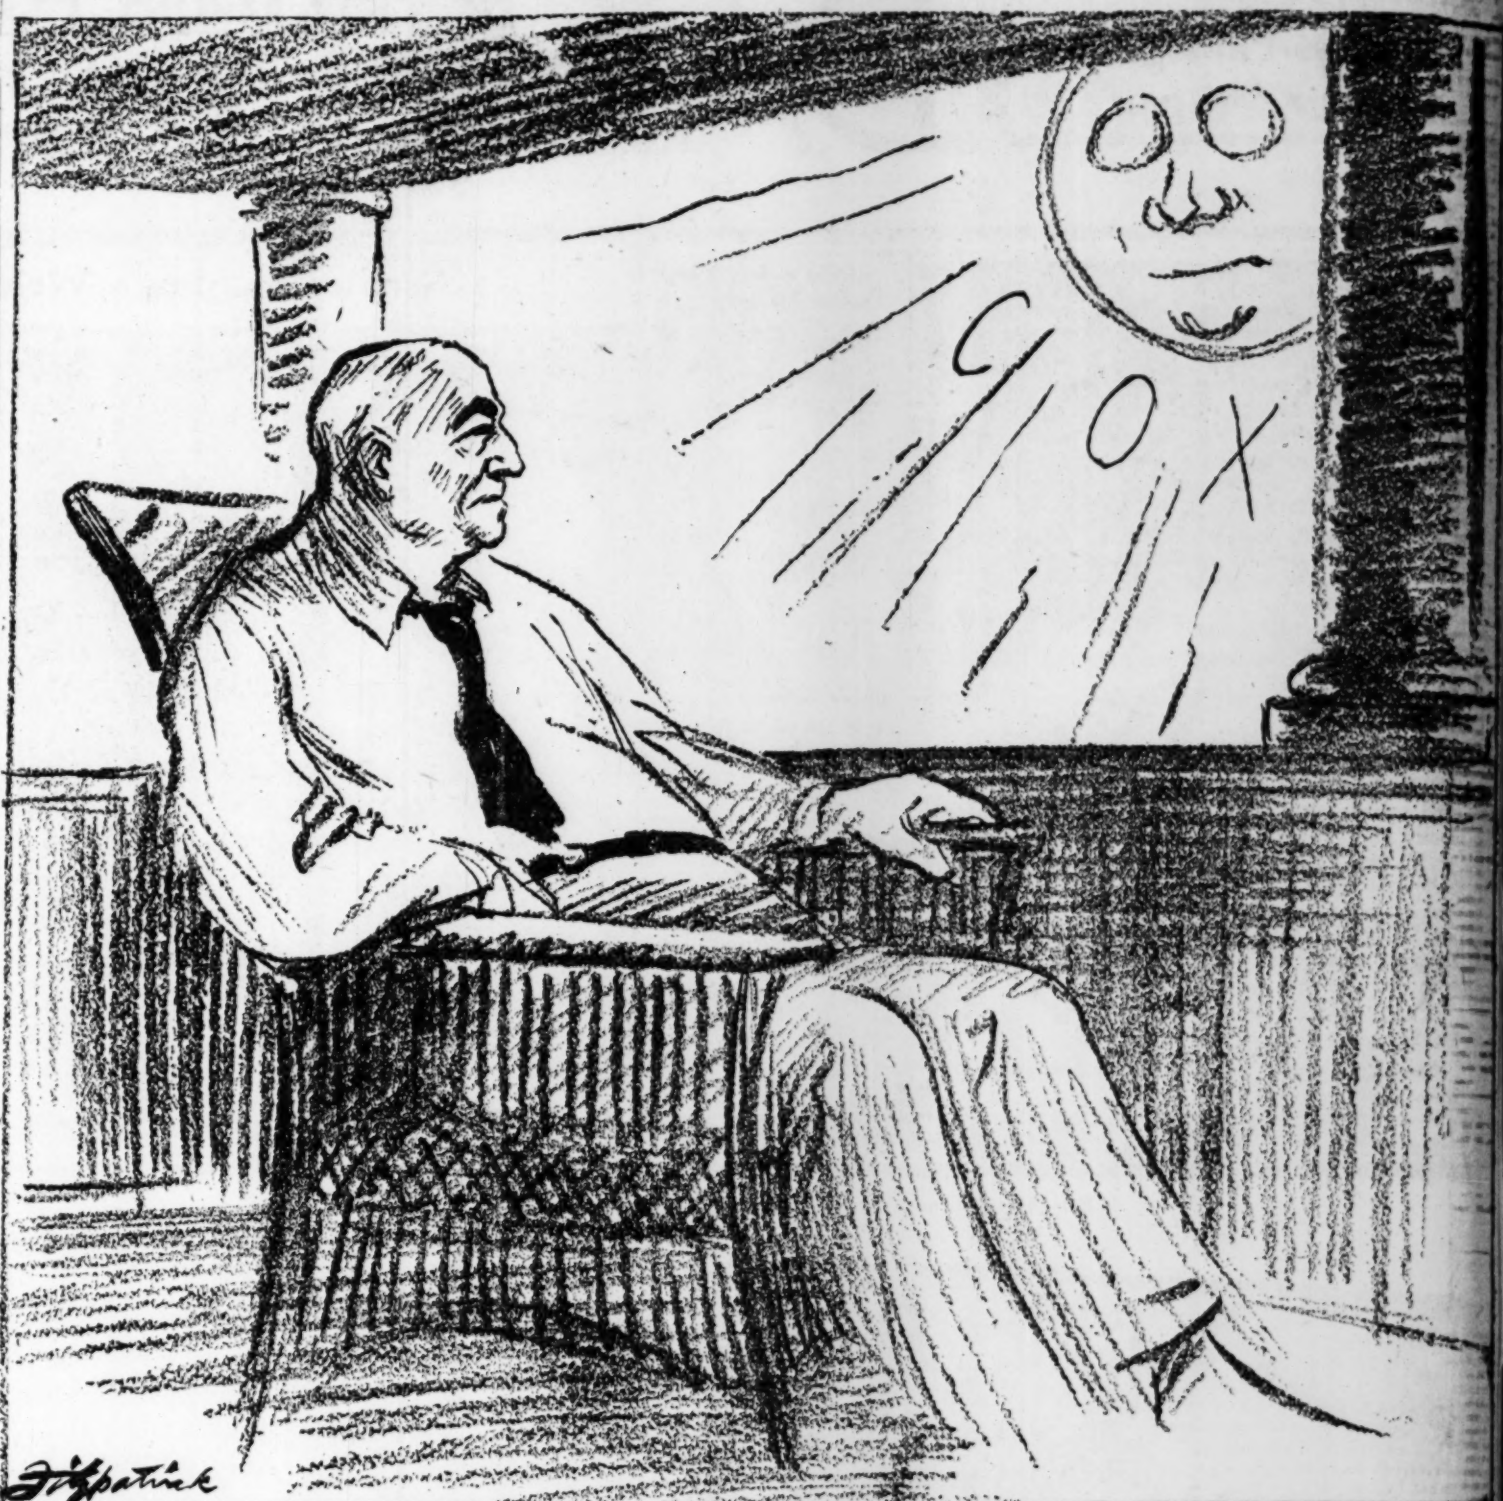

Maybe if large-scale, organized giving declines somewhat, it will be for the advantage of the poor family whose needs used to be our special care or that of the distant invalid cousin left in straitened circumstances or the cripple up the street a little way who occasionally ought to have a helping hand. If these have not been actually forgotten, most of us will have to confess that we had little money left for them after our contributions to the much-exploited philanthropies.

The Democrats expect to get back into the White House with a Jimmy.

MR. ANTWERP'S OPINION.

"I HAVE always said that the Democrats are better politicians than the Republicans," Mr. Antwerp said. "They have to be. A minority party can succeed only by its wits, whereas a majority party can usually prevail with mere weight."

"The Democratic party has recovered slowly from the Civil War. Its estate may be said to be better at this time than at any time since the Civil War put it in the minority. Its opportunity at this time is also greater than it has ever been. The opposition, with too much power over a long period of time, has become reactionary. This is always inevitable. It is exactly what happened the Democratic party at the time of the Civil War. Only the Democratic party can be liberal and progressive. You find the proof of this in the record of the Democratic Congresses of the Wilson administration. This brings us to the campaign for which we are now all straightened out. The Democrats prove themselves the better politicians for having kept the party a going concern. The Republicans have not done that. They have stood still. The record of Senator Harding in the Senate is that of a reactionary. It is against progress, just as the Senator himself is the candidate of those who are against all liberalizing things. The Democratic party, upon the other hand, moves forward with our times. It has a progressive candidate with a record of progress. It has a progressive platform. It does not say it is against government ownership, nor is it afraid to stand for the rights of labor. It is for the League of Nations, which the Chicago platform is afraid to mention. "The Democrats had to take this course. They would have been poor politicians had they not done so. They could not also stand still and hope to defeat the Republicans, because there are more Republicans than Democrats. Their chance was to take a liberal course which would win Republicans to them, and I think they have done this with such shrewdness that it is a question this minute which party will win. That is a political triumph for the Democrats as politicians. It makes the Republicans respect them, which will in time liberalize the Republican party. It cannot continue to stand still and see the Democratic party march past it."

As a student of transportation, perhaps you can tell why St. Louis, which is so near the Southern Illinois coal fields, has industries closing down for lack of fuel and others paying about $2 a ton over the market, due to a car shortage?

Why the Illinois Central, with over 30,000 coal cars, is not bringing 10 per cent of the normal quantity of coal into St. Louis?

Why the small amount of coal now mined in Southern Illinois is shipped to distant points in congested territory?

Why coal cannot be shipped from Southern Illinois to St. Louis on the Big Muddy and Mississippi Rivers, as they now do from points on the Black Warrior in Alabama to New Orleans?

Why the administration of the railroads seems to be drifting back to Washington?

DEFEAT.

THE armor, Pride, gave me a shield,

JULIA CLOPTON CRESAP.

Mr. McAdoo's performance at San Francisco was not merely remarkable; it was unique. He did not want to run, nor did the party want him to run. Neither he nor the party could dissociate him from the Wilson household, which is not an asset in the campaign. All Presidents become unpopular in their second terms. The country wants to be rid of them utterly, or, as Senator Lodge put it at Chicago, "their heirs and assigns forever." Col. Roosevelt, probably the most popular President we ever had, became in his second term the most unpopular President we have ever had. The thought of him was almost unbearable to almost half the people one met. Yet Mr. McAdoo was all but nominated anyway. Despite the disqualification, which the party had to accept at last, as Mr. McAdoo himself long ago accepted it, there were respects in which he was the best asset the party had. The feeling that the party could neither win with him or without him must still be so widespread as to amount almost to a party tragedy. Maybe the party shall feel more hopeful about it after it comes to know Gov. Cox better. He seems to be something of a bear, but as the standard bearer we have yet to be shown.

There were so many former Republicans related to the Frisco convention that we were not a bit surprised to see the name Roosevelt bob up on the ticket.

While it is hard to see what good it can do them, the wets at Frisco still insisted upon the nomination of someone who hasn't thrown his corkscrew away.

The MIRROR of PUBLIC OPINION

THE PRESIDENTIAL PRIMARY.

From Leslie's.
THE presidential preference primary, as its name suggests, was designed to reveal a preference among candidates. In this it has signally failed in the case of both parties. Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler doesn't hesitate to say of the primary that it has been "both a fraud and a failure." Even when a candidate "swept" a State, it may have meant that only 20 per cent, or less, of the party vote was recorded. In some states the results were confused and complicated because the system of choosing candidates. Not only has the primary failed to reveal a preference, but it has also in the process it has created even greater evils of its own.

SPANISH AND ENGLISH.

DON AUGUSTIN EDWARDS in the States (Eng.).
SPANISH is the speech of 18 sovereign nations and several great and populous islands. Eighty-two millions of human beings speak the language of Cervantes, say their prayers in it, plight their troth in it, recount their sorrows, enact their laws, conduct their trade, bargain, offer, plead in that language. Turning from Spanish to English, we find that the latter language is spoken by two sovereign nations and the British Dominions, and is the speech of, approximately, 100,000,000 human beings. The English and Spanish are untitled, and our countrymen depopulated. But the towns themselves are a ferment of ignorance and material putrefaction. The birth rate is declining, immortality is increasing, tuberculosis is adding to its victims, alcoholism is growing. However, since society does not obey the same laws as a human organism, civilization will in time rejuvenate itself. It is not destined to perish utterly. It is its destiny to die only to rise again from its own ashes. It recovered its youth several times in Rome alone—after each conquest of that placed new land at the disposal of the proletariat. Its ultimate decline did not begin until it reached its ultimate frontiers. In Europe, where revolution has restored the youth of society, because it has created a new subdivision of land, dividing up the estate of the church or of the nobility. Colonial conquests have shifted the stage of civilization, and we see today the Spain of former ages still surviving in parts of America. But the time will come when the people will no longer have the strength to revolt, and the nations of Europe will disappear one after another, never to revive until after a long night of barbarism.

EBB AND TIDE OF CIVILIZATION.

From the Madrid (Spain) Herald.
PEOPLE are deserting Europe, fleeing its cities, which they say is not exhausted but sequestered by a few thousand monopolists. The country people are herding in the cities, and our cities are untitled, and our countrymen depopulated. But the towns themselves are a ferment of ignorance and material putrefaction. The birth rate is declining, immortality is increasing, tuberculosis is adding to its victims, alcoholism is growing. However, since society does not obey the same laws as a human organism, civilization will in time rejuvenate itself. It is not destined to perish utterly. It is its destiny to die only to rise again from its own ashes. It recovered its youth several times in Rome alone—after each conquest of that placed new land at the disposal of the proletariat. Its ultimate decline did not begin until it reached its ultimate frontiers. In Europe, where revolution has restored the youth of society, because it has created a new subdivision of land, dividing up the estate of the church or of the nobility. Colonial conquests have shifted the stage of civilization, and we see today the Spain of former ages still surviving in parts of America. But the time will come when the people will no longer have the strength to revolt, and the nations of Europe will disappear one after another, never to revive until after a long night of barbarism.

MORE TRUTH THAN POETRY

By James J. Montague.

THE ROLLING STONE.
He's tackled almost every trade
But stuck at nothin' long.
An' we've begun to get afraid
He's bound to turn out wrong.
To lots o' things his hand he's turned
But never yet went through,
For long before he had 'em learned
He's switched to somethin' new.

He's kep' a store, an' been a cop,
A brakeman on a train;
A while he run a plumbin' shop
But give it up again.
He's been a captain of a ship
That sailed to Hindustan,
But left it on the second trip
To drive a movin' van.

He got the bug for aeroplanes,
That busted quick, of course;
He come to earth to take the reins
Behind a trottin' horse.
And though, of course, he went to war,
He didn't stick at that;
A few days' fightin' got him sore
An' so he left it flat.

He's just a shiftless rollin' stone,
A failure, we're afraid;
Ain't no ambition of his own;
Won't stick at any trade.
An' yet we sort o' hope that he
Some time will take a hold
An' get somewhere, because, you see,
He's only six years old!

GOD IN EVERYTHING.
Anyway, this campaign is going to teach a lot of us how to pronounce Ganahel.

OTHER WORDS, "BOODLE."
There, appears to be no shortage of sugar in the political sense of the word.

THEY STAY THERE.
Investments in campaign funds are certainly permanent.

His Rather Odd Name.

A newspaper man not long at the Capitol met a man in the corridors whom he had seen often and whom he thought he knew. He addressed his supposed acquaintance:

"I see you here often. Do you work here?"

"Yes."

"What's your line?"

"I'm what they call a Senator."

"Caught, the newspaper man tried to bluff it out."

"Oh, yes, yes," he said: "I remember you perfectly. How stupid of me. You're Senator-Senator-Senator!"—Snapping his fingers and waiting for help. No help comes. As if thinking aloud:

"It's a short and rather odd name."

"Yes, it is."

"More pawing of the air and vain efforts to recall."

"It's Smith," suggested the Senator.

"Oh, yes, yes; of course. I remember you perfectly! How stupid
of me! You're Smith of Arkansas!"

"No, Smith of Maryland! I told you it was an odd name!"—Philadelphia Evening Ledger.

Catty.

Jack: Hasn't that girl a kind face?

Jill: Yes, a funny kind.—Pitt Panther.

Face Looked Familiar.

Dinah was a product of New Orleans, a big, plump "yaller gal," who could cook the finest dinners for miles around. One day a new butler appeared upon the scene, and Dinah's mistress noticed that she took a great interest in the man.

At last her mistress could stand her curiosity no longer and asked:
"Dinah, do you know that new man?"

Dinah took another long and scrutinizing look and then slowly and reminiscently replied: "Well, I dunno, Miss Alice; but I think he was ma fust husband!"—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

In a Quandary.

"I'm in a tough position," declared the Judge who had resigned to resume the practice of law. "Been employed to try to get a new trial for a man I sent to jail."

"Well?"

"Shall I decline the case, or shall I make myself out a mutt for convicting this man?"—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Cost the Same.

"What is the difference between a luxury and a necessity?"

"There is no difference at all,
nowadays!"—Detroit Free Press.
